Change of the Name of the Associate of Arts in Core Curriculum Program

Proposal:

We propose to change the name of the Associate of Arts in Core Curriculum (AACC) program to Associate of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies (AAIS).

Justification:

The name AACC is not attractive to students and doesn't reflect the nature of the degree. Students are often confused about the name of the program and show very little enthusiasm about it. Interdisciplinary Studies is a more suitable name for this program since students can use courses from several disciplines to fulfill the requirements of area F of the program. In addition, several USG institutions, including Georgia Southern University, have a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies.
