

Brides-To-Be:

Situated among towering pines near the main entrance of East Georgia State College, the Fulford Center is the perfect venue for your special occasion. Let us assist you with your wedding rehearsal dinner or bridesmaid luncheon. The beautiful outdoor deck area, a great room with cozy seating around a grand stone fireplace, and a comfortable dining area (accommodating up to 70 people) are sure to provide the ultimate setting and ambiance for your special event. You will also find our catering to be second to none. For more information on Fulford Center rentals, please go to www.ega.edu and click on the Sudie A. Message From The Director

This summer, like previous summers, will see new camps and programs, and a wonderful child-centered staff working the magic of camp!

Our camps offer young people opportunities for success each day. They are a place where spirits soar and laughter roars. Here at the Fulford Center, we love what we do, and we hope it shows in everything we do.

We look forward to a summer full of friendship, personal growth, and FUN!
 See you soon at the Center!

Emanuel Retired Educators Hold Year-End Meeting

The final 2013-14 meeting of the Emanuel Retired Educators Association was held May 21. Anne Miller, Georgia Retired Educators Association Area VI Director, attended the meeting and installed the 2014-15 officers. Dr. John Derden, chair of the association's scholarship committee, presented the annual EREA Scholarship to Kaidy English, an education major at East Georgia State College.

Area Student Groups Visit Center

Over 600 students visited the Center last month. Elementary and middle schools students from Candler, Tattnall, Emanuel, and Jefferson counties took part in a variety of fun, educational activities. Students enjoyed planetarium shows, art activities, a snake show, and the ropes course.

Erin Youmans, Magnolia Midlands Georgia Youth Science and Technology Center Coordinator, also provided a variety of age-appropriate hands-on science activities.

The visits were the culminating activity of the students' academic school year.

Certified Sitter Training

Hey teens! Do you like children? Want to become CPR certified?

On June 24 and 25, the University of Georgia Extension Service will be offering a Babysitting and CPR Certification Training. Available for ages 12 through 17, the training will be offered from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m, and the cost of the course is $25. To register or to receive additional information, contact Marnie Dekle at (478) 237-1226 or marnie@uga.edu.

"Standards, Stem, and Science Literacy" WORKSHOP

For two days in May, Erin Youmans, Magnolia Midlands GA Youth Science & Technology Center Coordinator, provided an informative STEM (Science/Technology/Engineering/Mathematics) workshop for area math and science teachers. The first workshop focused on elementary standards, while the second day of training centered on middle grade standards. During the workshops, teachers participated in a variety of hands-on STEM activities and worked on integrating engineering, language arts, math, and technology into engaging science lessons.
