

East Georgia State College (EGSC)
African American Male Initiative (AAMI)
presents Mr. Ronnie Spry

“Success comes with a Price”

February 23, 2015

11:00 am EGSC Luck Flanders Gambrell Auditorium

Mr. Ronnie Spry is a native of Princeton, Kentucky. He was the first African American in the State of Kentucky to be employed at a predominately white institution of higher education as Director and Head Men’s Basketball Coach.

In 1980 Mr. Spry served as Athletic Director and Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Paine College for 30 years. He believes “Life is full of challenges and how we deal with them determines the outcome.”

