1. INSTITUTIONAL ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNANCE

1.1 History and Facts

East Georgia College, formerly Emanuel County Junior College, a unit of the University System of Georgia, opened its doors in the fall of 1973. The campus, built on 207 acres of beautiful oak-pine woodlands and open fields, includes a two and one-half acre lake. Most of the land was donated by Mrs. Luck Flanders Gambrell, a native of Swainsboro. The citizens of Emanuel County passed a $2,000,000.00 bond issue and acquired the land on which the college was to be built as prerequisites for the approval by the Board of Regents to build a college in Swainsboro.

This institution of the University system of Georgia serves as a commuter college for students living within a 50-mile radius of Swainsboro and Statesboro, including all or parts of Appling, Burke, Emanuel, Effingham, Evans, Jenkins, Jefferson, Candler, Toombs, Treutlen, Johnson, Laurens, Bulloch, Montgomery, Screven, Washington, and Tattnall counties.

1.2 Mission Statement

East Georgia College, a fully accredited two-year unit of the University System of Georgia, provides a wide range of credit and noncredit academic programs in an atmosphere contributing to intellectual and cultural growth. Headquartered in Swainsboro, the college serves a seventeen-county rural region that has an economic mix of agriculture and manufacturing. The 207-acre campus, opened in 1973, provides all of the intellectual and physical resources necessary to maintain high quality general education opportunities. Although most students commute to the campus, the college extends its mission through the East Georgia College Center at Statesboro and through the cooperative Associate of Applied Science programs with neighboring technical colleges. East Georgia College is committed to a positive and growing impact on its constituency—an impact that will:

- demystify the college experience among those for who higher education has not been a part of their experience,
- increase college participation among those who otherwise would not have the opportunity,
- foster increased intellectual aspiration and attainment among all.

In addition, the college enthusiastically meets the needs of a developing economy through its seventeen county region. In these endeavors, the college seeks to sustain and enhance its tradition of excellence.

East Georgia College shares with other institutions in the University System of Georgia the following characteristics:

- a supportive campus climate, necessary services, and leadership and development opportunities, all to educate the whole person and meet the needs of students, faculty, and staff;
- cultural, ethnic, racial, and gender diversity in the faculty, staff, and student body, supported by practices and programs that embody the ideals of an open, democratic, and global society;
- technology to advance educational purposes, including instructional technology, student support services, and distant education;
- collaborative relationships with other Systems institutions, state agencies, local schools and technical institutes, and business and industry, sharing physical, human, information, and other resources to expand and enhance programs and services available to the citizens of Georgia.

East Georgia College shares with other two-year colleges in the University System the following characteristics:

- a commitment to excellence and responsiveness within a scope of influence defined by the needs of a local area and by particularly outstanding programs or distinctive characteristics that have a magnet effect throughout the region or state;
- a commitment to a teaching/learning environment, both inside and outside the classroom, that sustains instructional excellence, functions to provide University System access for a diverse student body, and promotes high levels of student learning;
• a high quality general education program that supports a variety of well-chosen associate programs and prepares students for transfer to baccalaureate programs, learning support programs designed to insure access and opportunity for a diverse student body, and a limited number of certificate programs to complement neighboring technical institute programs;

• a commitment to public service, continuing education, technical assistance, and economic development activities that address the needs, improve the quality of life, and raise the educational level within the college’s scope of influence;

• a commitment to scholarship and creative work to enhance instructional effectiveness and meet local needs.

East Georgia College is known for its strong academic standards, its dedicated and skillful faculty, and its commitment to quality improvement through a college-wide comprehensive assessment process. East Georgia College, proud of its role as a learning resource for the people of rural east central Georgia, seeks to build upon its strength and to justify recognition as one of the most student-oriented, community-centered, and academically respected institutions of its kind.

1.3 Educational Assumptions or Objectives

1.4 Governing Board Organization Functions

East Georgia College is a unit of the University System of Georgia, subject to the general jurisdiction of the Board of Regents, a constitutional Board of the State of Georgia, and the chancellor of the University System of Georgia.

1.5 Organizational Structure

See chart in Appendix.

1.5.1 Communication with Board of Regents

The policies of the Board of Regents and the East Georgia College Statutes state that “the president shall be the official medium of communication between faculty and the chancellor and between any council, senate, assembly, or other such body of the college” (Article 2, Section D).
1.5.2 Legal Matters/State Law Department

Any inquiry or request to be made of the State Law Department should be directed initially to the president of the college for endorsement to the chancellor.

1.6 Description of Administrative Staff Positions and Functions

A complete listing of administrative staff positions and functions can be found in the East Georgia College Statutes.

1.7 Faculty Governance Structure

According to the East Georgia College Statutes, the faculty shall make, subject to the approval of the president, the chancellor, and the Board of Regents, rules and regulations for its government and procedures, and for that of the students; provide such committees as may be required; prescribe regulations regarding admission, dismissal, discipline, scholarship, classes, courses of study, and requirements for graduation; and make such other regulations as may be necessary or proper for the maintenance of high educational standards. The faculty prescribe rules for regulation of student publications; athletics; intercollegiate and intramural games; musical, dramatic, and literary clubs; and all other student activities and affairs, subject to the approval of the president, the chancellor, and the Board of Regents.

1.7.1 Faculty Constitution

East Georgia College does not have a faculty constitution.

1.7.2 Standing Committees of the Faculty

In addition to organization by divisional and departmental structure, the faculty shall carry on its business through a structure of standing committees that shall represent the faculty. A listing of the standing committees and their purposes can be found in the Statutes.

1.8 College Calendar

The official college calendar is maintained by the Office of Lifelong Education. All special activities and events, other than classes, whether scheduled inside or outside or on-campus or off-campus, must be placed on it and cleared through that office. The academic calendar is maintained by the Office of Admissions, Records and Financial Aid.
2. ACADEMIC ORGANIZATION AND RESOURCES

2.1 Examination Policies

2.1.1 English Competency

Students are expected to use Standard English in writing assignments for all courses. In addition, students should be encouraged to use Standard English in oral communications as well.

2.1.2 Regents’ Testing Program

In order to receive a degree or certificate, students must demonstrate competency in English by passing the Regents’ Testing Program.

1. Students in programs leading to the baccalaureate degree who have not met the Regents' Test requirement must take the test during the semester of enrollment immediately following the completion of 30 college-level semester credit hours. (College-level credit hours include all credit with the exception of institutional credit.) This requirement applies regardless of whether the student has taken or passed specific courses, including English courses, or completed any other institutional requirements.

2. Passing the Regents' Test is defined as having passed both parts of the test by scoring at or above the minimum passing score specified for each part. Students will also be considered as having passed a part of the test if they achieve a score on another standardized test as specified by the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academics and Fiscal Affairs (effective summer semester, 2003 for students graduating from a USG institution in summer semester, 2003 or later). Such scores must be from a national test administration and must indicate a very high probability (at least .95) of passing a part of the Regents' Test. Tests used to fulfill the essay requirement must include an externally-graded writing sample. The following tests and scores are approved, and other tests will be considered as data become available:

3. Students with SAT-I Verbal scores of at least 510 or ACT Reading scores of at least 23 will be considered to have fulfilled the reading comprehension requirement of the Regents' Test and do not need to take the reading portion of the Regents' Test. Scores must be from a national administration of the SAT or ACT. (Scores from institutional SAT or residual ACT tests will not be acceptable for this purpose.) Students must be reported on SIRS (S415B) as having met the Regents' Test reading requirement through scores on the SAT or ACT.
4. Students with College Board Advanced Placement (AP) English Language and Composition or English Literature and Composition scores of at least 3, International Baccalaureate (IB) higher-level English scores of at least 4, or SAT II English Writing scores of at least 650 will be considered as having fulfilled the essay requirement of the Regents' Test and do not need to take the essay portion of the Regents' Test. (There is no implication that such students should be given any course credit or exemption in English. This remains an institutional matter.) Students must be reported on SIRS (S415A) as having met the Regents' Test essay requirement through AP, IB, or SAT II scores.

5. Students who have earned 45 college-level semester credit hours and have not met the Regents' Test requirement shall take the appropriate nondegree credit course(s) in remedial reading and/or remedial writing in each semester of attendance until they have passed both components of the test.

6. Students with 45 college-level credit hours who have not passed either part of the test are required to take remediation in both reading and writing each semester. The only exception that may be made is for part-time students taking one remedial course and no college-level credit courses.

7. Students with fewer than 45 semester hours of college-level credit are not required to take remediation and may be permitted to retake the test without remediation. (Although institutions may require students to take remediation before earning 45 hours, there should be an opportunity for students who plan their schedules appropriately to take the test twice before they are required to take remediation. Such planning may require enrollment in English the first two semesters and may include additional requirements established by the institution. Students who postpone taking English or who postpone taking the test will not necessarily have two opportunities to take the test before the remediation requirement is imposed.)

8. Institutions may not prohibit students who have earned at least 30 credit hours from taking the test for the first time. Students may be permitted or required to take the test before they have earned 30 hours. Students may be permitted to take the test during a semester in which they are not enrolled. (For example, non-enrolled students from associate degree institutions who are otherwise eligible to take the test and not subject to a remedial requirement might be encouraged to take the test during the summer administration.)

9. Students who have failed both parts of the Regents' Test may be allowed to take the reading and essay portions of the test in separate semesters.

10. Having passed the Regents' Test shall not be a condition of transfer into an institution. All transferring students from programs leading to the baccalaureate degree within the System shall be subject to all provisions of this policy. Students with 30 or more semester credit hours transferring from outside of the System or from a System program that does not require the Regents' Test should take the test during their first semester of enrollment in a program leading to the baccalaureate degree. Those who have not passed before their third semester of enrollment are subject to the remediation requirement.

Students entering with AP credit, credit from other advanced placement programs or examinations, and/or joint enrollment credit may take the Regents' Test during their first two semesters of enrollment. They are not subject to System-mandated remediation requirements unless they have earned at least 45 hours and been enrolled at least two semesters.

11. The Regents' Test is not a requirement for an Associate of Applied Science degree or an Associate of Science degree in an allied health field, although institutions may choose to require the test for these degrees.

2.1.3 Research Papers and Final Examinations

Faculty should return written tests and reports to students for review within a reasonable time. They should keep final examinations and research papers on file for at least one year and should allow students to review their papers upon request. Copies of all final examinations must be filed with the department chair for five years.

Faculty who desire to administer a re-examination (final) must have prior approval of the appropriate division chair and the vice president for academic affairs.

2.1.4 Religious Holidays

Upon submitting an advance written request to the instructor, a student will be granted an excused absence for religious holidays. Instructors are to provide assignments and/or exams without penalty for those students who request to be excused for religious observances as mandated by federal and state statutes. Students excused for religious observances are responsible for material covered during their absences and are expected to meet the class requirements for those days without undue delay.

2.2 Grading Policies

Prior to midterm, all faculty members will record student deficiencies on the BANNER system class roll. If no students in the class have a deficiency inform the vice president for academic affairs of the lack of midterm deficiencies. Midterm deficiency reports are mailed to the student's home address by the vice president for academic affairs.
The college follows the uniform grading pattern of the University System. (See Catalog). Plus and minus grades may not be placed on the permanent record and are not considered in the calculation of averages. Final course grades are to be recorded directly into the computer through BANNER.

Students who have dropped a course officially through the Registrar’s Office may be given a (W). The withdrawal deadline for giving a (W) is normally the midpoint of the term. Students who drop courses after this date receive a (WF). Only the vice president of academic affairs, based upon the recommendation of the course instructor, may grant exceptions to this policy.

An I (incomplete) should be given only when a student has satisfactorily completed a significant portion of a course but for nonacademic reasons beyond his or her control was unable to meet the full requirements of the course. An (I) must be removed by the end of the next term of enrollment. Without regard to enrollment, an (I) must be removed within one calendar year. An (I) that is not removed will become an (F).

To give an incomplete, faculty must complete the “I” Grade Control Form and submit the form to the Registrar’s Office. The information will also be placed on file in the office of the department offering the course and will provide a record of the specific understanding between the instructor and the student; it will also serve as the basis for assisting the student to remove the incomplete in the event of subsequent non-availability of the instructor. Once the student has fulfilled the requirements for removal of the incomplete, the instructor will need to complete a Grade Change Form and file it with the Registrar’s Office. Refer to the East Georgia College Intranet for forms.

On the final grade rolls, numerical grades as well as letter grades must be assigned for all Accel students.

2.2.1 Grade Books

Grade books, hard copy or electronic copy, are required to be kept by faculty as a part of the college’s records. At the end of the academic year or before terminating employment, all grade books must be turned over to the appropriate division chair unless the faculty member is teaching summer semester.

2.2.2 Grade Changes

Faculty who need to make a change in a student’s grade must fill out a Grade Change Form in the Registrar’s Office and give the completed form to a full-time employee in the Registrar’s Office. The instructor will need the student’s social security number, the name of the course, the term in which the course was taken, the previous grade, and the reason for the change.
2.2.3 Directed Study

Directed study is a formal agreement between an instructor and a student or students, with administrative approval, whereby a course listed in the College Catalog may be taken at a time and place other than indicated in the term class schedule. In extraordinary and justifiable circumstances, a student may request a course through directed study. Although neither the instructor nor the college is bound to accede to such a request, grounds for approval may include one or more of the following: (1) A course in a student’s program of study has not been offered such that a student would otherwise be unable to complete degree requirements in a reasonable amount of time; (2) a course is needed in the student’s last term of residency in order to graduate; or (3) a course, while required in a program of study, typically does not attract sufficient numbers of students to make.

Directed study is rarely offered, and the student is expected first to explore all options such as online or correspondence courses offered by the University System, courses offered at our satellite sites, or transient study at another college or university. Directed study courses are not offered for convenience.

Course content will be the same as in a regularly held course, and academic quality will not be sacrificed in directed study courses. Students are expected to perform at equivalent levels to those in regular courses. If necessary, directed study courses will be modified to reflect the need for students to do a workload equivalent to students in a regularly scheduled course.

Application for directed study begins with the student’s discussing the possibility with the academic advisor. Next, the advisor will confer with the instructor who is being asked to do the directed study. The decision, however, lies with the instructor in consultation with the respective division chair. Final approval must be obtained from the vice president for academic affairs. A form for this purpose may be obtained from the Registrar’s Office. When completed, the form should be returned to the Registrar’s Office. The form will include a written agreement between the instructor and student, specifying a schedule of tasks, dates, and times related to the completion of required course components.

2.2.4 Accel Program

East Georgia College participates in the Accel Program in cooperation with public high schools in the state of Georgia. Students who are in the eleventh or twelfth grade who meet all eligibility requirements may take college courses either as joint enrollment or early admission students. The Accel Program is funded by the Georgia Lottery for Education and administered by the Georgia Student Finance Commission. A student who is interested in this program should make the initial contract with his/her high school counselor.
Faculty must assign numerical grades in addition to letter grades on the final grade rolls for all Accel Program students enrolled in their classes.

2.3 Course Development, Approval and Implementation

Although curricular change may begin at any level in the institution, the formal process follows these steps:

I. Individual Faculty
II. Division/Department
III. Vice President for Academic Affairs
IV. Academic Policies Committee
V. Faculty
VI. President
VII. Office of the Chancellor (new programs)
VIII. Board of Regents (new programs)

However, before a proposal comes before the Academic Policies Committee and the faculty, all who would be affected should have the opportunity to make suggestions, criticisms, or objections. The vice president for academic affairs and the president should have a similar opportunity as well to determine if the proposal is legally or economically possible and within the role and scope of the college.

Faculty who desire to propose a new course should fill out the Application for Proposed New Course form (see EGC Intranet) which includes the following sections:

1. Justification of the need for the course (narrative)
2. Major topics to be covered each week
3. Objectives of the course
   a. Objectives
   b. Purpose (replacement or additional course)
   c. Effect on enrollment of other courses
4. Institutional resources which make the offering desirable (including qualifications of available instructors)
5. Estimated budget to support this course
   a. Operating costs
   b. Capital outlay
   c. Additional library resources
6. Institutions in the University System offering similar courses (including course titles and numbers)

2.4 Instructional Computing Resources

Computer Labs

Three networked computer labs are available for instructional use by faculty, staff, students, and East Georgia College Continuing Education participants. The labs are located in rooms C-226 and C-236 in the Math/Science wing of the Academic Building and in J-531 in the Luck Flanders Gambrell Building. The labs have word processing, Email, and Internet capabilities and include a variety of academic software programs. Overhead projection systems, attached to the lecturers’ computers, are available in each lab. In addition, one networked computer lab adjacent to the library is available exclusively for student use. Entrance and exit COMPASS testing will be given in the networked computer lab in the physical education/fine arts building.

Faculty members interested in utilizing the labs for academic software programs should contact Academic Computing for assistance. In addition, faculty members requiring training for themselves or students on software available in the labs should contact Academic Computing.

Policies relating to the hours of operation and general use are posted at the entrance of each lab.

Purchasing Computer Hardware/Software/Supplies

Faculty members who need to purchase computer equipment or related supplies should submit a departmental request to their division chair. If needed, Computer Services is available to assist faculty members in making computer-related purchases.

Academic Server

A Novell Netware Server, which houses a major portion of the campus academic software, is available for use by faculty and staff. In addition to providing networking capabilities throughout the campus, the server can be utilized by faculty members to deliver stored presentations in any multimedia classroom or computer lab.

Support/Training
Providing support and training to faculty and staff are two major areas of Computer Services. Faculty members who experience problems with computer hardware, software, or related technical equipment located at any East Georgia College location should contact Computer Services for assistance. In addition, faculty members interested in utilizing multimedia equipment, such as overhead LCD classroom projectors, should contact Computer Services or the college’s director of instructional technology for instructions on proper use.

Available Software

Various software programs are utilized at East Georgia College for academic and administrative purposes. A detailed list of all software packages available and supported by Computer Services will be listed on the campus web server and made available as needed in hard copy. The following lists the more commonly used and supported campus software programs:

Windows 98 and 2000 XP
Microsoft Office Suite 2000
Eudora Light Email Version 1.52 and higher
Netscape Navigator Version 7.0 and higher
Microsoft Internet Explorer Version 3.0 and higher

BANNER Information System

East Georgia College utilizes BANNER Software for handling all aspects of student registration and related tasks. The system is utilized by staff and faculty to assist students in the registration process, and to track academic progress.

2.5 Instructional Technology Support

Mission

The mission of the Office of Instructional Technology Support is to assist faculty in obtaining, developing, and implementing materials that will aid in classroom presentations.

Location

The Office of Instructional Technology is currently located in the projection room directly behind Room 240. The office may be contacted by calling extension 2064 or by using campus mail or e-mail. A campus mailbox is located at both suites of offices in the Academic Building. The e-mail address is wesmith@ega.peachnet.edu.

Training for Faculty
Individual training sessions are provided by request. Use one of the methods listed above to contact the office and schedule the appropriate place and time for training. Faculty workshops are given as needed. Suggestions for faculty workshops are always welcomed.

Equipment

The Office of Instructional Technology has several items of equipment to assist faculty in enhancing classroom presentations. The training aids and technology are open to all faculty and are on a first come first served bases.

Currently the college has two GSAMS classrooms or compressed video labs. They are located in Room 240 in the Academic Building and Room 122 in the Physical Education Building. GSAMS uses cameras and television monitors connected to telephone lines to transmit classes to students at distance locations. This allows faculty to teach a class on campus and at distant sites simultaneously. Each room is equipped with the following items:

- Document camera or Elmo. This takes the place of the overhead projector and does an excellent job of magnifying pictures or objects.

- Softboard. Computerized chalk or white board. This allows for images to be transmitted to remote sites. Also, images may be saved to a computer file and recalled by students for study at a later time.

- Computer. Each GSAMS classroom is equipped with a computer for Internet or computer software presentations. Each computer is equipped to operate on Windows '95 and uses Office ‘97 as its software package. Because the computer has limited storage space, faculty must supply their own diskette or have pre-designated space on the campus server.

- Scanner. Both GSAMS classrooms are equipped with a HP ScanJet 4C color scanner. Faculty may scan pictures or documents into the computer for use in their classes.

Recently, EGC has installed an audio/visual retrieval system. The retrieval system will conserve technological resources, better utilize the existing technology, and allow for expansion to newer technologies in a more cost-effective manner.

The A/V retrieval system consists of two major parts, the Headend Room and the classroom. The Headend Room houses five VCRs, two laser discs, five cable boxes, the satellite, and the campus information system. The classroom houses a television monitor or a projection system along with a computer equipped with Windows '95 and Office '97 and the Internet. VCR tapes and laser discs can be scheduled and controlled from the classroom by either Infrared remote control (IR) or computer. Satellite or cable programs along with the computer can be viewed through the monitors or projection system.

Other equipment located with the ITSS includes two digital cameras for taking still photographs, one S-VHS video camera for limited video productions, and a video-tape editing studio.

Hours may change during summer terms and breaks.

Circulation

EGC faculty have the same loan privileges as students and staff which is 4 weeks for items from the general collection and 3 days for videocassettes. Reference books do not generally circulate, but exceptions can be made based upon specific requests.

Reserves

Library materials may be reserved for variable check out periods: one hour, over night, library use only, or for a time period set by the requesting faculty member. Faculty members who wish to place library materials on reserve should submit a list of titles to the librarian at least two days prior to the time the material is needed and should include the course number, descriptive title, dates the material is to be kept on reserve, and the reserve period desired. Faculty members may also put personal materials on reserve. When requested and not in violation of copyright laws, copies of reasonably short articles will be provided for reserve only. See copyright guidelines under the heading Instructional Responsibilities. When faculty submit reserve items to the Library, they will be listed on GIL@EGC under Course Reserves. Faculty may place electronic reserves on their WebCT pages.

Acquisition of Materials

Allocation of funds for library purchases is administered by the librarian with the approval of the VPAA and sometimes in consultation with the Library Committee. At present, no allocations are made by divisions. Individual requests for materials should be submitted to the librarian. Each request should be initialed by the faculty member and appropriate division chair. Requests should include a listing of the author, title, publisher, date, and ISBN. If a publisher’s announcement or catalog listing is available, it may be submitted. When items are received, announcements are made via the campus newsletter and email.

Library Committee

The Library Committee is comprised of two members from each academic division, the head librarian, and others as may be appointed.

Library Cards/ID Cards

Identification cards are issued by the library and are necessary for checking out books and resource materials from the library. They are also used for access to the EGC Fitness Center and campus events.

Interlibrary Loan Service

For any materials or books that are not available in the library and are needed for teaching or research, Library staff will try to locate these items first through University System libraries and then other libraries. Requests for periodical articles and essays from books are usually sent or received via ARIEL, a document delivery service and is usually free. Interlibrary loan requests can be submitted to library staff. Students, faculty, and staff may be able to place requests for some items.

Audio-Visual Services

Audio-visual services are offered by the library in conjunction with the Office of Instructional Technology Support. The Library and Computer Services will coordinate the circulation of equipment. The library has a collection of videotapes available for check-out or, with the coordination of Computer Services, for campus distribution via the central audio-visual distribution system (TiltRac).

University System Joint Borrowing Service

Faculty, staff, and students of the University System of Georgia are permitted to borrow materials from other institutions within the system. A valid and current East Georgia College ID must be presented at the other institution to exercise this privilege.
Electronic Resources

All computers in the Library and in the Student Computer labs are connected to the Internet. Applications such as word processing, spreadsheet, or PowerPoint are available only in the Computer Labs.

GALILEO

GALILEO stands for Georgia Library Learning Online, a project sponsored by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. A World Wide Web-based virtual library, GALILEO provides access to multiple information resources, including secured access to licensed products. Through GALILEO, East Georgia College faculty have access to over 100 databases that index thousands of periodicals and scholarly journals. Over 2000 journal titles are provided in full-text. Other resources include encyclopedias, business directories, and government publications.

Free electronic versions of periodicals for which the Library has subscriptions are available from the Library homepage at http://www.ega.edu/library, under “Library Resources.” Many of these ejournals are available directly from campus computers while some require passwords. All require passwords for off-campus access. Contact the Library to obtain these passwords.

netLibrary

Over 27,000 electronic books are accessible through EGC’s participation in GALILEO. These may be accessed through the netLibrary database on the GALILEO site as well as through catalog searches in the EGC Library OPAC. Faculty and students need to register for an account from an on-campus computer which will allow them access to these ebooks from off-campus.

2.7 Advisement and Placement Program

Advisors are assigned to each student to provide help and guidance in planning a college career; however, it is the responsibility of the student to know and to fulfill the graduation requirements of his/her major.

East Georgia College has a learning support program designed to assist students who have deficiencies in English, reading, and mathematics.
Placement Scores in English and Reading

Students who score below a 75 the reading or English portions of the COMPASS are required to enroll in learning support courses which provide institutional credit only.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<tr>

<td>READ 0098</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Placement Scores in Mathematics

Students who score below 37 on the mathematics portion of the COMPASS are required to take learning support mathematics. Students who score between 25 and 36 should enroll in MATH 0099 while students who score below 25 must enroll in MATH 0097.

Allowable Courses for Learning Support Students

Learning support students may not take courses that require English, reading and mathematical skills until they have completed the area of deficiency or have exited the developmental studies program. See appendix for a listing of courses open to learning support students. In addition, students who are required to enroll in two different areas of learning support are required to enroll in EGAC 1000 in the first term of attendance at East Georgia College. A student may be required to enroll in one, two, or all three of the areas of learning support.

Learning support students may not take a core course that has prerequisite skills for which the learning support course is designed. In addition, learning support students may not accumulate more than 20 hours of academic credit before completing all learning support course work. Students who are required to take learning support courses and who are enrolled in regular credit courses may not withdraw from learning support courses without withdrawing from their regular credit courses.

Exit Requirements for Learning Support Courses

To be eligible to take the exit examination (the COMPASS Examination), the student must be enrolled in the exit course for the area of deficiency and must have an appropriate numerical average and meet all course requirements. The COMPASS final is usually given during on the last week of the class for students in learning support classes. To exit a learning support mathematics course, students must score at least a 37 on the COMPASS. To exit a learning support reading course, students must score at least a 74 on the COMPASS and to exit a learning support English course, a student must score at least 60 on the COMPASS. Students in learning support classes who score one or two points below the cutoff score on the COMPASS final will be allowed to retest during the final exam period.

Grades for Learning Support Courses

Grades for learning support courses are as follows: A, B, C, IP (in progress), F, and W. Ds are not given. Students who have passing averages and completed course requirements but who fail the COMPASS are assigned the IP grade. The IP grade may also be assigned in English 0097 and Math 0097 at the discretion of the instructor for a student making progress in the class, but not having a passing course average.

2.8 Academic Calendar

The academic calendar is maintained by the Office of the Registrar. A copy of the calendar can be found on the college website at www.ega.edu.
3. FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS

3.1 Payroll Regulations

3.2 Travel and Fund Requests

Whenever faculty members are required to travel in the performance of their official duties, they should submit a Request for Authority to Travel form to their division chair at least a week in advance of the departure date. Upon return, faculty should then submit a Travel Expense Report form directly to their division chair (See appendix).

The following expenses are reimbursable:

1. Personally owned vehicle mileage: Transportation expenses incurred by the use of personally owned vehicles are reimbursable at the current rate. The initial point of departure shall be the individual’s residence, headquarters or whichever is nearer the destination point. Actual odometer readings must be reported; however, personal mileage will be excluded in determining the mileage for which reimbursement may be made. When possible, faculty should attempt to travel together to the same destination in one vehicle.

2. Common carrier: amount of tourist fare plus taxes. First Class airfare that exceeds the amount of the next lowest fare for the flight will not be reimbursed unless space is not otherwise available. Ticket stubs must be submitted with the travel statement as evidence of expenditure.

3. Lodgings: single occupancy rate plus tax. If faculty share a room with another employee, they should have a separate bill prepared for each person with half the double occupancy rate on each bill. When traveling with one’s spouse, the faculty member should have the desk clerk make a note of the single occupancy rate on the bill. Since state employees traveling on official business should not be charged county or municipal excise tax on lodging, they should obtain a tax exemption form from the Business Office before traveling.

4. Taxi and limousine service used for official business is fully reimbursable.

5. Rental cars: actual rental cost. Rental car transportation is not authorized when taxi or limousine service is available. For example, rental transportation cannot be used for a single round trip between an airport and a downtown location.

6. Meals: Reimbursement will be made for actual costs of meals within certain limits. Expenses for three meals at a rate of not more than $28.00 per day, including tax and tips, are allowed. Employees are entitled to reimbursement for breakfast if they depart prior to 6:30 a.m. and for dinner if they return after 7:30 p.m. The noon meal is not reimbursable unless overnight lodging is incurred or the meal is an integral part of the scheduled meeting. Receipts for meals are not required. Tips should be included in the cost for meals.

7. Registration fees for conventions or conferences will be reimbursed when supported by a “paid” receipt. If prepayment is required, faculty should check with their appropriate division chair for approval. Reimbursement cannot be made for optional assessments or fees or personal memberships. Any part of a registration fee applicable to meals shall be reported as meal expense and not as a registration fee if the costs can be separately identified.

8. Expenses for official telephone and telegraph usage, which must be paid for by the traveler, are allowable.

Reimbursement is made only after the employee returns from a completed travel assignment. Expense statement forms are obtainable from the division chair or the vice president for fiscal affairs. The form must be completed, signed by the employee, and approved by the division chair. See copy of Travel Request for in the Appendix.

3.3 Purchase Orders

Central Receiving

Merchandise delivered to the college is received at the Business Office or at the Plant Operations Warehouse. College personnel will deliver the merchandise to the assigned location. Faculty help in verifying the receipt of scientific and other equipment may be requested.

Emergency Purchases

In an emergency, it is possible to make purchases locally without going through the formal purchasing procedures. Approval for such purchases must be given by the vice president for fiscal affairs in advance.

Office Supplies

The budget for office supplies for faculty is provided by the division. Some division chairs order, store, and distribute such materials themselves; others provide the faculty member with a budget against which the instructor orders.

The division secretaries have a listing of all items in stock and should be notified if any items are needed. Except in emergencies, all requests for office supplies should go through central supply. Items should not be bought directly from the vendor and charged to the college. In emergencies, if the items cost less than $20.00, they may be procured locally through petty cash in the Business Office.

Ordering Supplies and Equipment

To order supplies (other than office supplies) and equipment, faculty should fill out a departmental request and submit it to their division chair. The Business Office will prepare the necessary purchasing documents and notify faculty when the item is received.

Petty Cash Purchases

The Business Office maintains a petty cash fund to purchase small items of supply locally. As a general rule, purchases less than $20 should be procured through petty cash. Petty cash purchases must be approved in advance by the division chairs. The original copy of the receipt or invoice is necessary for reimbursement.

Textbook Orders

Orders for textbooks should be placed not later than five weeks before the end of the term preceding their use. For the fall term, textbooks should be ordered by the end of the spring term.

In order to insure efficient service, individual faculty members should turn their orders in to the division chair who will consolidate the book orders for the division and submit them to the vice president for academic affairs. All textbook orders will be submitted by the vice president of academic affairs to the college bookstore. The division secretary will order desk copies for the faculty through the publishers.

3.4 Insurance Claims Procedures

For information, contact the Business Office.

3.5 Check Cashing Procedure

Personal checks may be cashed in the Business Office for an amount up to $10.00. Checks may also be cashed in the bookstore for an amount not to exceed $10.00 above the amount of purchase.

3.6 Inventory

Equipment Classification

In order to assist faculty in preparing their budget requests and in analyzing their probable expenditures for supplies and equipment, the following general guidelines for equipment classification are stated:
Equipment items are those which have an acquisition value of $1,000.00 or more per item and have a life expectancy of three years or more. Components that are acquired to build a piece of equipment should be classified as equipment even though individual parts cost less than $1,000.00 each. Equipment items with an acquisition cost of between $100.00 and $999.00 are to be classified Equipment-Non-Inventory. A departmental record should be maintained of Equipment-Non-Inventory items. Items permanently installed or affixed to a building are not to be classified as equipment.

All items that qualify as equipment should be placed on the institution’s inventory records regardless of source of receipt. Items received as gifts should be assigned a value based on the fair market value. Surplus property received from federal or state agencies should be placed on the inventory records at the actual cost.

Surplus Property Disposal

Faculty members who wish to surplus an item should make a request to their division chair. The division chairs should then make a written request to the vice president for fiscal affairs for further action. In addition, any faculty member may make arrangements with the vice president for fiscal affairs to visit the Swainsboro Surplus Property facility to acquire surplus property.

Equipment Inventory

Division chairs are directly responsible for the custody of equipment assigned to their divisions. The Business Office will provide division chairs with a listing by property decal number for inventory control. The Business Office will take a physical inventory yearly with the assistance of the division chairs.

3.7 Budget and Fiscal Items

Faculty should give their budget requests for the next fiscal year to their department or division chair. These requests will usually include the following categories:

1. Travel (list the organization and purpose of attending)
2. Operating Supplies (expendable items lasting less than a year)
3. Equipment (itemized, with approximate cost for each item)
Student Services Budget

The Office of the Vice President for Student Services is responsible for the coordination of student services and activities. It is the responsibility of faculty sponsors, under the guidance of the vice president for student services, to approve the spending of student activity funds which have been allocated to their groups. Faculty sponsors may be held responsible for any expenditure exceeding the budget. Normally, extra funds may be acquired only by budget amendment within the Student Services budget, i.e., by reducing the budgeted amount from one activity to enlarge another.

All bills for the regular fiscal year must be turned in to the Business Office by May 31 each year. The college cannot assume responsibility for bills turned in after this date.

Collection of Miscellaneous Monies and Charges from Students

The Business Office has the responsibility of accounting for all monies collected that relate to the operation of the college. Charges for items such as parking decals, SAT tests, and photocopying are assessed to reimburse the college for its expense.
4. STUDENT AFFAIRS

4.1 Academic Ethics

Role of Faculty in Encouraging Academic Honesty

It is the duty of the faculty to practice and preserve academic honesty and to encourage it among students. Instructors should clarify any situation peculiar to the course that may differ from this policy and should furthermore endeavor to make explicit the intent and purpose of each assignment so that the student may complete the assignment without unintentionally compromising academic honesty. It is the responsibility of faculty members to provide for appropriate supervision of examinations.

Academic honesty requires the presentation for evaluation and credit one’s own work, not the work of others. In general, academic honesty excludes:

1. Cheating on an examination of any type: giving or receiving, offering, or soliciting information on any examination.

2. Plagiarism. Plagiarism is the failure to acknowledge indebtedness. It is always assumed that the written work offered for evaluation and credit is the student’s own unless otherwise acknowledged. Such acknowledgment should occur whenever one quotes another person’s actual work; whenever one appropriates another person’s ideas, opinions, or theories, even if they are paraphrased; and whenever one borrows facts, statistics, or other illustrative materials.

3. Collusion in the preparation of editing notes, themes, reports, or other work offered for evaluation and credit unless such collaboration is specifically approved in advance by the instructor.

All faculty must promote academic honesty not only through their own high standards of scholarly conduct but also by anticipating conditions which may lead to dishonesty on the student’s part. At the beginning of each course or prior to the first test, faculty should make explicit statements about their expectations of high standards of conduct. In all classes that require students to prepare term papers, research reports, and projects, faculty should instruct students in the proper method of documenting, citing, and adapting source materials.

Faculty should avoid placing student assistants in compromising positions by requesting them to type or handle testing materials. Faculty should allow only divisional secretaries to type and duplicate tests.
4.2 Student Government

The Student Government Association is the campus organization governing student activities and representing the students in college affairs. The student body elects members and officers of the SGA. The SGA is composed of three officers: the president, the vice-president, and the secretary-treasurer; three senators elected from the sophomore class; and three senators elected from the freshman class.

4.3 Student Records Regulations

Student’s Right to Privacy

Annually, through distribution of the Student Handbook, East Georgia College informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This Act, with which the institution intends to comply fully, was designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their education records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office (FERPA) concerning alleged failures by the institution to comply with the Act.

4.4 Tutoring

The Academic and Instructional Resources (AIR) Center on the East Georgia College Swainsboro Campus provides tutorial services, supplemental instruction, and guided practice in mathematics, reading, writing, and grammar. An AIR Center is also available at the Statesboro site. Instructors should refer student to the AIR Center for academic assistance. In addition, instructors are encouraged to volunteer their services at the AIR Center and to contribute supplemental course-specific exercises and practice tests to the Center for student use.

4.5 Counseling

Counseling and Testing

The staff of the Office of Student Services provides guidance and counseling services. Students may seek help at any time by contacting the offices of Student Services or by visiting the college’s Guidance and Counseling Center located in the Student Center.

Testing is available to assist in placing students, in diagnosing problem areas, and in determining career interests and aptitude. Academic advisors are assigned to each student to assist in planning individual college programs.
Students with Disabilities

Students who have documented learning disabilities are allowed certain accommodations to improve chances of success. Instructors will be notified in writing by the college ADA office at the beginning of each term as to which students qualify for academic accommodations. Accommodations may include, but are not limited to, extended time for tests and quizzes, in isolation, to include the Regents’ Test; permission to audiotape lectures; permission to write English essays on a computer with a spell-check. Additional information may be requested through the Office of Student Services. Students with documented learning disabilities may be able to request special accommodations for the COMPASS Test, the Regents’ Test, and the Institutional SAT and must notify the Counseling Office at least one week prior to testing to assure the accommodation is met.

4.6 Organizational Advising

Faculty members who are interested in starting service clubs or pre-professional organizations must implement the following procedures to secure recognition on campus:

1) Meet informally with interested students
2) Call a formal meeting
3) Establish a constitution and set of by-laws
4) Submit a copy of the constitution and by-laws to the Student Government and Vice President for Student Services for approval.

For additional information, contact the Office of Student Services.

4.7 Disciplinary Rules

4.7.1 Student Absences

Courses at East Georgia are provided for the intellectual growth and development of students. To attain maximum success, students must attend their classes regularly and are expected to attend all scheduled course activities including, but not limited to, field trips, seminars, study sessions, individual conferences, and lectures.

Regular and punctual attendance and adherence to the course schedule is the student’s responsibility. Students are expected to account for absences to each instructor and, at the discretion of the instructor, to make up all work missed because of the absence. Final approval for any class absence remains with the individual instructor.

At the beginning of each semester, instructors will clearly explain to each of their classes specific attendance requirements.
The general attendance policy at East Georgia College is that after the equivalent of one week of absences regardless of the cause, instructors may penalize the student. The “one-week equivalent” means three absences in a three hour credit course that meets three times a week during a fifteen week semester; however, the “equivalent week” will vary depending on the class meeting schedule and the length of the term. A student penalized for excessive absences may appeal to the board of review appointed by the Academic Policies Committee.

Faculty should keep accurate records of student absences. This information is needed by the vice president for academic affairs in making decisions about a student’s academic or disciplinary status as well as in counseling and by the Business Office to determine refund status when a student withdraws without formal notification.

When a student has been absent the equivalent of one week of classes, the instructor should notify the division chair.

4.7.2 Discipline Problems

Faculty members who have difficulty with unruly students are asked to first attempt to resolve the problem themselves with tactics to deal with the incivility in the classroom. Faculty are asked to document any incident as such with as much detail as possible. If the student(s) continue to be unruly, the faculty should take the next measure and contact his/her division head. If the problem is deemed that needs attention beyond the division head, the division chair should then notify the Vice President of Student Services and Vice President of Academic Affairs should be notified. Appropriate documentation should accompany any request for their assistance with unruly students. See Student Handbook, “Student Code of Conduct” and “Regents’ Statement on Disruptive Behavior”.

Any student, faculty member, administrator, or employee, acting individually or in concert with others, who clearly obstructs or disrupts, or attempts to obstruct or disrupt any teaching, research, administrative, disciplinary, or public service activity, or any other activity authorized to be discharged or held on any campus of the University System is considered by the Board of Regents to have committed an act of gross irresponsibility and shall be subject to disciplinary procedures, possibly resulting in dismissal or termination of employment.

Note: Research shows that student expectations in class should be clearly outlined in the syllabus to establish expectation of conduct and to reduce the chance of unruly behavior.

4.8 Field Activities
All field activities must be approved by the division chairs, and if bus transportation is involved, arrangements for the bus must be made through the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. A waiver of liability form must be completed and submitted prior to the trip. See the EGC intranet for a copy of the Release and Assumption of Risk for Participation in Off-Campus Educational and Recreational Activities form. Instructors should distribute a notice of the field trip to the faculty, to the Office of Student Services, and to the vice president for academic affairs with the following information:

1. List of students with telephone numbers.
2. Purpose of the trip and destination.
3. Itinerary.
4. Time of departure and return.
5. Major stops and approximate times.
6. Name of the driver.

Parents of minors should be notified if there is to be a long delay in returning to campus.

Specific policies amplifying the statements in the Statutes follow:

I. General Publicity Policies

A. All news releases will be issued to the media through the director of public information as stated in the Statutes of East Georgia College.

B. The director of public information is responsible for determining the news value of any information submitted and for deciding on the treatment and distribution of such information. Requests for special distribution, such as to hometown newspapers or alumni publications, will be honored insofar as this is practical or possible.

C. While it is hoped that every worthwhile story will get the treatment it deserves, the amount of activity may sometimes force the establishment of priorities. These priorities will be set by the director of public information in keeping with policies established by the president or any person or group designated by him or her to perform this function.

D. The director of public information may, as a matter of courtesy or to verify faculty matters, allow faculty or staff members to read drafts of stories before these stories are issued to the media. A rental fee is charged for the use of the Student Center facilities. Current rental fees are posted in the Office of Public Information. These charges include cost of utilities and labor for setting up and cleaning the building after the activity. The college reserves the right to add a surcharge for additional services required beyond the normal ones provided. Some activities require an additional security guard, and the cost of this service will be borne by the renter. Renters must agree to the above stipulations, in addition to assuming responsibility for damages to college property caused by the renters or users. All fees and charges will be agreed upon in writing when the renter reserves the facility.

Political Campaigns

The president may authorize the use of institution facilities for political speeches. However, such use shall be limited to meetings sponsored by recognized organizations of the institution and shall be held only at places designated by the president. The use of institutional materials, supplies, equipment, machinery, or vehicles in political campaigns is forbidden.

Use of Facilities by College Student Organizations

Student organizations will be permitted to use campus facilities without charge, subject to prior approval by the director of public information. East Georgia College is an affirmative action, equal opportunity educational institution. Admissions, treatment, and employment at the college is not influenced by race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, veteran status, or handicap.

6.1 Grant Administration

The regulations of the Board of Regents and the fiscal policies of the State of Georgia provide that the president of the institution must authorize the commitment of the facilities, staff, or institutional services, and the president is the only officer of the institution who may enter into a contractual agreement with any agency external to the institution. Proposals for external contracts and grants must be routed through the usual channels and must be affirmed in writing by the president.

Research grants and contracts are awarded to the college, not to individual faculty members. Both the vice president for academic affairs and the vice president for fiscal affairs share responsibility for the proper execution of research grants and contracts. Proposals are initiated by the academic staff and approved by the vice president for academic affairs. The vice president for fiscal affairs has responsibility for contractual negotiations, for accounting and preparation of financial reports, and for collection of payments from sponsoring agencies. The president shall sign all such research grants and contracts.

All maintenance, lease, and rental contracts shall be in writing and signed by the vice president for fiscal affairs.

6.2 Copyright Guidelines and Patents

The copyright law limits what instructors may copy, under what conditions, and for what purposes. Authors and producers have specific rights under the law that cannot be denied. However, the copyright law was also designed to allow educators and students to reproduce copyrighted materials under certain limitations for educational purposes. An understanding of the fair use concept is important in determining what may or may not be copied. Section 107 of the copyright law states that:

fair use of copyrighted work, including such use by reproduction in copies . . . or by any other means specified by that section (Section 106) for purposes such as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching (including multiple copies for classroom use), scholarship, or research is not an infringement of copyright.

Furthermore, Section 107 lists the four criteria for evaluating fair use of copyrighted materials in an educational setting:
• the purpose and character of the use, including whether such is of a commercial nature or is of nonprofit educational purposes,
• the nature of the copyrighted work,
• the amount or portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole,
• and the effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

For additional information on patents and copyrights, see the Policy Manual of the Board of Regents, Section 603.

6.3 Environmental Hazards

The Instructional resources coordinator is a liaison between the vice president for fiscal affairs, the vice president for academic affairs, plant operations, and instructors to coordinate the clean-up and disposal of hazardous wastes.

6.4 Student Financial Aid

The student assistant program is financed entirely by the college. Students enrolled in the program generally work ten to fifteen hours a week. Financial need is not a determinant in qualifying for work as a student assistant. All employment at the college operates in compliance with Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The selection of student assistants is at the discretion of the division chairs or department heads. Faculty members who desire student assistants must have the approval of the division chair before employing a student assistant. Once student assistants have been selected, they must contact the Business Office before beginning work. Student assistants are paid minimum wage.

College Work-Study is a federally funded program designed to help students who have qualified for financial assistance through an approved need analysis system. The number of hours that students may work depends on their financial need and the amount of other financial assistance received. College work-study students normally work ten to nineteen hours per week. Some may work full time between terms. In no circumstance may their earnings exceed their financial aid award. College work-study students must contact the Business Office and the Financial Aid Office before beginning work. College work-study students are paid minimum wage.

Accurate records of hours worked must be kept for all student employees.
6.5 Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is prohibited and shall subject the offender to dismissal or other sanctions after compliance with procedural due process requirements.

6.8 Emergency Procedures

6.8.1 Inclement Weather

A tornado watch means that weather conditions are favorable for tornado formation. This does NOT mean that a tornado has been spotted. During a tornado watch, normal campus activity should continue, but everyone on camps should be ready to move to designated shelter areas should conditions warrant.

A tornado warning means that a tornado has actually been sighted in the area. Should a tornado warning be issued by the National Weather Service, everyone on campus will be notified and should move immediately to the stack area of the library. Offices should be locked and outside doors should be left open.

During periods of severe weather watches, you will also receive an alert upon such threatening conditions such as dark rolling clouds, hail, driving rain, or a sudden change in wind direction or velocity. Upon receipt of such an alert you should move to the stack area of the library as described in the preceding paragraph. Everyone should remain in the library until the all clear is given.

If one is in the Student Center and does not feel that it is safe to go to the library, the safest place is in the kitchen area or one of the inner offices. Do not remain in the game room or assembly room adjacent to the snack bar. The rooms contain large expanses of glass, which could be deadly.

If one is caught in the Physical Education Building, move to the inner hallway or one of the small locker rooms. Do not remain in the vicinity of the glass doors.

Those who cannot leave the Administration Building should move to the lavatory area of the building, or the inner hallway. Avoid the area of the glass doors.
The suggested areas of safety mentioned in the various buildings are those areas that are removed from windows. The close walls of the smaller rooms offer an added measure of protection.

6.7.2 Other Emergencies

If a need should arise regarding a fire or a confrontation with a student or community members, contact EGC security. If there is a potential threat to someone’s life, dial 9-911 then contact EGC security. Remember- Safety First!

Faculty members who attain a higher degree after employment should do likewise.

7.3.2 Verification and Certification of Degrees

Verification of all degrees held by individuals being considered for full-time or part-time positions on the faculty is a requirement before a definite commitment for employment becomes valid. The chair of the search committee or the appropriate division chair in the case of part-time faculty has the responsibility for obtaining this certification and checking the number of subject specific graduate level courses. This tabulation and the official transcripts are sent to the vice president for academic affairs with a written recommendation. If the vice president concurs, a written recommendation is transmitted to the president.

7.4 Evaluation of Faculty

The faculty of East Georgia College in accordance with the University System Board of Regents’ Policy Manual will be evaluated on an annual basis during the Spring Term of the academic year. The purpose of faculty evaluation is to maintain high standards of instruction and commitment to academic advising, community service, and professional development. The results of faculty evaluation will be used for counseling faculty about teaching, academic advising, community service, and professional development. The results are further used to determine merit pay raises, promotion, and tenure.

Faculty evaluation is achieved through two instruments: the East Georgia College Student Faculty-Course Evaluation Questionnaire and the Faculty Member Evaluation Report. Both instruments were composed and approved by the faculty of East Georgia College. See the EGC intranet for copies of these forms.

The Student Faculty-Course Evaluation Questionnaire is administered for courses each term during the academic year. The objective section results are summarized and printed for each course and each faculty member and are available to the vice president for academic affairs, division chairs, and faculty members. All Student Faculty-Course Evaluation Reports are filed with the secretary for the vice president for academic affairs for future reference, should the need arise for referencing these documents.

Faculty Member Evaluation Reports are administered by the appropriate division chair and include these criteria: 1) teaching, 2) service to the institution, 3) academic achievement, 4) professional growth and development. The criteria further include: a) demonstrated classroom performance; b) influencing students to accomplish objectives; c) encouraging and assisting students’ self-development and favorable disposition toward education; d) demonstrated flexibility in teaching assignments and working conditions; e) conscientious, effective student advising; f) contributions to institutional tasks; g) promotion of harmonious working relationships and team effort; h) support of the college’s continuing education program; and i) contributions to community service.
The following are a part of the evaluation system:

1. The division chairs will schedule individual conferences with faculty members to discuss the content of the faculty member’s annual written evaluation.

2. Faculty members will sign a statement indicating that they have been apprised of the content of the annual written evaluation.

3. Faculty members will be given the opportunity to respond in writing to the annual written evaluation, and these responses will be attached to the evaluation.

4. The division chairs will acknowledge in writing receipt of this response, noting changes, if any, in the annual evaluation made as a result of either the conference or the faculty member’s written response. This acknowledgment will also become a part of the record.

7.5 Promotion and Tenure

In order to administer the policies of the Board of Regents and comply with the Statutes of East Georgia College, the procedure described herein is to be followed in evaluating and recommending faculty members for promotion and tenure. The purpose of this procedure is to provide an orderly process for counseling untenured faculty members as they move toward the time for the tenure decision to be made and to set forth a mechanism by which all untenured faculty will be evaluated. It is also designed to assure an orderly process of review of faculty for promotion to higher academic ranks. These procedures apply to full-time faculty.

The policy at East Georgia College is intended to supplement the policies of the Board of Regents as stated in sections 803.08 and 803.09 of the Policy Manual of the Board of Regents and Section F of the Statutes of East Georgia College.

Criteria

All decisions pertaining to promotion and tenure shall be based upon the following criteria: superior teaching, outstanding service to the institution and community, academic achievement, professional growth and development, and length of service.

All faculty members at East Georgia College are expected to be effective teachers. The candidate for promotion or tenure or the division chair should be able to present evidence of effective teaching in support of a bid for promotion or tenure.
Effective service to the institution encompasses those things that a faculty member does that go beyond the classroom responsibilities. These include but are not limited to effective student advising, service on divisional and college committees, participation in the lifelong education program of the college, and service to the community through civic or charitable organizations.

Academic achievement means that the faculty member holds the appropriate degrees to teach in his/her field. For promotion above the rank of assistant professor, the candidate should have at least a master’s degree. Holding a particular degree does not in and of itself guarantee promotion or tenure.

All faculty members are expected to participate in activities that enhance their performance as teachers. These include but are not limited to publishing; presentation of papers at regional, state, or national meetings; attending professional meetings; and study of professional literature in one’s field of expertise.

The minimum period of service before the award of tenure will be five years at the rank of assistant professor or higher. The maximum period will be seven years at the rank of assistant professor or higher. Neither promotion nor tenure will occur automatically with the passage of time but will occur because of noteworthy achievement in the areas listed in the criteria.

Administrative Procedure

The normal chain of progression for a promotion or tenure recommendation is from the division chair to the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure to the vice president for academic affairs to the president to the Board of Regents. Specific responsibilities of the division chair, the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure, and the vice president for academic affairs will be delineated below.

The division chair is a key person in the promotion or tenure process. The division chair has the responsibility of counseling the faculty in the division concerning the faculty member’s responsibility to the institution and the expectations of the institution from the faculty member. It is assumed that this process will begin with the hiring of a new faculty person and will be ongoing, especially during the years leading up to a decision on the award of tenure.

Each untenured faculty member must submit a pre-tenure portfolio to the division chair, who then forwards it to the Review Committee on Promotion and Tenure in the spring term of the third year of service at the level of assistant professor or higher. The division chair may at this time submit a statement to the committee concerning the qualifications of the faculty member and any other relevant information. This package is for review and critique and is not a formal application for tenure. The division chair will use the committee’s critique in continuing counseling with the faculty member.
When the faculty member and the division chair believe that the time is appropriate for a formal application for tenure, the division chair will forward to the Review Committee on Promotion and Tenure the faculty member’s portfolio along with the recommendation from the chair.

In the case of promotion, the chair will assist the faculty member in preparing a promotion portfolio and will send a recommendation along with the portfolio to the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure.

While the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure has the responsibility of determining the precise contents of the pre-tenure/tenure/promotion portfolio, its contents should document the degree to which the faculty member has met the criteria outlined above.

When a faculty member submits a pre-tenure portfolio to the committee, the committee will review it and submit a written critique to the faculty member and the appropriate division chair.

When a formal application for tenure or promotion is received, the committee will review the application, add its recommendation to that of the division chair, and forward the portfolio and the recommendations to the vice president for academic affairs. At the same time, the committee will notify the faculty member and the appropriate division chair as to its action on the application.

The vice president for academic affairs will appoint the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure. This committee will consist of one tenured faculty member from each of the three academic divisions. When the committee is first appointed, the vice president for academic affairs will designate one member to serve a one-year term, one to serve a two-year term, and one to serve a three-year term. As these terms expire, the next person appointed will serve a three-year term. The division chairs will not be appointed to this committee. In the case in which a member of the Review Committee is applying for promotion, the vice president for academic affairs will appoint a temporary replacement on the Committee for the academic year.

When the vice president for academic affairs receives a recommendation from the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure, he/she will add his/her recommendation to that of the committee and the division chair and forward the entire package to the president. The vice president for academic affairs will notify the faculty member and the division chair as to his/her action on the application.

Tenure Time Line

During the spring term of the third year of service at the level of assistant professor or higher, the untenured faculty member must submit a trial portfolio for review and critique to the Review Committee for Promotion and Tenure.
During fall term of the fifth year of service at the level of assistant professor or higher, a portfolio may be submitted to the committee for formal tenure review if the faculty member and division chair agree that the time is appropriate for the review. This formal review constitutes the first step in the application for tenure. If this application is not successful, the faculty member may reapply during the fall term of the subsequent years until his/her maximum allowable service years have been reached.

It is understood that if an application for tenure or promotion is initiated, the faculty member may request at any time that the application be withdrawn.

The division chair will inform the faculty member of their tenure status each fall to include the timeline for gaining and retaining tenure.

Tenure and Promotion Guidelines

The Tenure and Promotion Committee recommends the following guidelines to faculty compiling a portfolio for pre-tenure, tenure and promotion. In addition, guidelines for developing vita are also presented.

Portfolio Guidelines

1. Limit letters of recommendations to three. The committee suggests that the candidate choose only the strongest letters that address different attributes.

2. All letters of recommendation should be typed and original.

3. Appendices should be used for documentation so that the body of the portfolio can be as succinct as possible.

4. The vita should contain only items relevant to the tenure and promotion decision. (See the accompanying vita guidelines.)

5. The cover letter should act as an abstract of the portfolio.

Vita Guidelines

1. Include a complete list of degrees earned, the awarding institutions, and the dates completed.

2. Provide a summary of teaching experience, including employers, date of employment, and subjects taught.

3. List professional affiliations, including offices held.
4. List professional publications, including books and journal articles. Short abstracts of the most significant publications may be included in an appendix to the portfolio.

5. List in summary from evidence of teaching effectiveness. The evidence should include evaluations of supervisors and students. Details supporting this summary may be included in an appendix to the portfolio.

6. List the most significant professional growth and development activities. These include activities that either enhance a faculty member’s abilities as a teacher or as a contributing member of the college community.

7. List in summary form service to the college. This may include service on standing committees and special committees, such as search and SACS committees.

8. List in summary form service to the community. This may include lifelong education, articles written for local publication, and volunteer work.

7.6 Post-Tenure Review Policy

Criteria

The Board of Regents has mandated that each unit of the University System of Georgia develop and implement procedures for conducting post-tenure reviews of all faculty. The main objective of the reviews is to enable each faculty member to reach his/her full potential in service to East Georgia College. This review should be a positive part of each faculty member’s career development. In keeping with the mission of East Georgia College, each faculty member will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. Teaching

2. Service to the Institution and Community

3. Academic Achievement

4. Professional Growth and Development.

5. Other. This is a category that allows a faculty member to submit for evaluation activities, such as judging in academic contests and other activities that do not fit into the first four categories.

With the understanding that teaching is of primary importance at East Georgia College, noteworthy achievement need not be demanded in criteria 2, 3, and 4 but should be expected in at least one of them.
Frequency

According to policies of the Board of Regents, faculty will undergo review every five years after being granted tenure. Each year a portion of the tenured faculty will undergo post-tenure review. The process cycle was begun with a random drawing to determine the year of review. The fifth year will be used to evaluate faculty members who achieve tenure after the process began. Faculty members will be informed as to the year of their review by the chair of the three-member Steering Committee during the fall term of their fifth year.

Administration

There will be a three-member Steering Committee appointed by the vice president for academic affairs to resolve questions and difficulties. The committee will be appointed for a period of three years. The Faculty Review Board will consist of all tenured faculty members.

Methodology

The faculty member being reviewed may select a member of the Faculty Review Board to serve as chair of the Review Panel. Two other tenured faculty will be chosen by a random drawing conducted by the Steering Committee. The chair will be responsible for convening the panel, making assignments, keeping the minutes, and communicating the results only to the faculty member, the division chair, and the vice president for academic affairs.

To document accomplishments pertaining to the criteria, each faculty member will submit to the Review Panel a portfolio containing the following information in the order listed and tabbed for ease of reference. To help ensure completeness of the faculty member’s portfolio, an informal review will take place at the division level prior to the official review.

1. A letter of evaluation from the immediate supervisor.
2. A current curriculum vitae.
3. A summary of student evaluations from one class per year for the past five years.
4. Annual reports for the past five years.
5. A copy of evaluations from the division chair for the past five years.
6. A realistic career development plan for the next five years.
7. Any additional information the individual wishes to submit.

If, after examining the material submitted by the faculty member, the Review Panel feels there are significant omissions, the faculty member will be informed and given the opportunity to fill in the missing data.

By majority vote, the Review Panel will determine whether the faculty member’s performance is satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

Outcomes

At the conclusion of the review, the Review panel will report its decision to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. If the Vice President for Academic Affairs agrees with the decision of the Review panel, he/she will notify the faculty member, the division chair, the chair of the Steering Committee, and the President that the review has been successfully completed.

If the Vice President for Academic Affairs does not agree with the decision of the Review Panel, he/she will give his/her points of disagreement to the Review Panel in writing and ask that they reconsider the faculty member's portfolio. If there is further disagreement, the Steering Committee will look at the portfolio and make the final determination on the portfolio. In any case, the faculty member, the division chair, the chair of the Steering Committee, and the President will be notified of the outcome of the review.

If performance is deemed to be unsatisfactory, the faculty member will, in consultation with the division chair, establish a two-year plan of development, which may incorporate features of the five-year plan but will address deficiencies noted in the evaluation. After two years, the faculty member will be evaluated again under the guidelines of this procedure. If the evaluation is again unsatisfactory, the Vice President for Academic Affairs in consultation with the division chair will propose a plan of action to the President.

Appeals

A faculty member has the right to appeal an evaluation to the full Faculty Review Board, diminished by the three faculty who constitute the Review Panel. The appeal must then go to the Steering Committee and finally to the vice president for academic affairs. The appeal may encompass any action that has been taken, including an unsatisfactory evaluation, the development plan, or the evaluation of progress after the third year.

7.7 Severance

7.7.1 Non-reappointment/Discharge
Faculty members may be dismissed before the end of the term for the following reasons, provided that the institution has complied with procedural due process requirements.

- Conviction or admission of guilt of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude during the period of employment—or prior thereto if the conviction or admission of guilt was willfully concealed.

- Professional incompetence, neglect of duty, or default of academic integrity in teaching, in research, or in scholarship.

- Sale or distribution of illegal drugs; teaching under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs which interferes with the faculty member’s performance of duty or responsibilities to the institution or to the profession.

- Physical or mental incompetence as determined by law or by a medical board of three or more licensed physicians and reviewed by a committee of the faculty.

- False swearing with respect to official documents filed with the institution.

The president of an institution may at any time remove any faculty member or other employee of an institution for cause. Cause shall include willful or intentional violation of the policies of the Board of Regents or the approved Statutes of this institution.

7.7.2 Resignation

Letters of resignation should be sent to the President with copies to the vice president for academic affairs and the division chair. Keys must be returned to the vice president for fiscal affairs, all college property and books must be returned to the appropriate offices, and all grades and grade books must be turned in before a final paycheck will be released.

7.7.3 Lay-off (Reduction in Work Force)

The term layoff, as used in this policy, is defined as the temporary dismissal of any employee, including tenured faculty members or non-tenured faculty or other contracted employees, before the end of their contract term. Layoffs may lead to eventual termination. Layoffs or terminations may occur within an academic or other units of an institution without a net loss of faculty members or other personnel at the institution; that is, layoffs or terminations in some academic or other units may occur with simultaneous authorization of new positions for different duties in academic or other units depending upon the needs of such units. The President of each institution, after consultation with faculty and staff, shall determine whether layoffs or terminations are required and which employees will be affected. This determination shall be made in accordance with the procedures established by the Chancellor, which will give primary functions and responsibilities of the institution.

Faculty and other employees under contract who are laid off or terminated before the end of their contract term for reasons of financial exigency shall, whenever possible, be notified at least ninety (90) days in advance of the date of the layoff or termination. The notice of layoff or termination shall be delivered personally or by certified mail, with return receipt requested. This notice shall include, in writing, a statement of the conditions requiring layoff or termination, a general description of procedures followed in making the decision and a statement of the employee’s right to respond orally and in writing to the appropriate official at the institution as to the reasons for the layoff or termination. The employee(s) shall also have the right, upon written request within twenty (20) days from the date of the final decision of the President to apply to the Board of Regents for a review of the President’s decision in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws of the Board. (Source: Section 805.02 of the Board of Regents Personnel Manual).

7.8 Workload

7.8.1 Faculty Course Loads

The normal teaching load for a full-time faculty member is 15-16 credit hours of instruction per term. Adjustments in the faculty load may be made by the vice president for academic affairs when necessary with the approval of the president and when budget and availability of personnel permit. Division chairs normally are assigned 8 to 11 credit hour teaching loads.

7.8.2 Teaching

Teaching involves those activities associated with the design and delivery of course material to the student. It is a process designed to advance the student’s learning experience.

7.8.3 Advising Students

Faculty are expected to be available during announced advising days and evenings and should maintain posted office hours daily. In addition to being knowledgeable about the fields assigned, each advisor must become thoroughly familiar with the current college catalog and advisement guide. These documents contain changes in programs and regulations, which must be understood before appropriate advice can be given to students.

The vice president for academic affairs selects faculty advisors for the various degree programs. In assigning faculty to the various degree programs, the vice president for academic affairs considers, insofar as possible, the interests and competence of individual faculty members. The Office of Admissions then assigns students to a faculty advisor.

From time to time, students need to change advisors. The most common reason for such a change is the desire to change from one major course of study to another or from “undecided” to a major. If either of these situations exist, the student begins the process by informing the current advisor of his or her decision to change majors. The advisor then contacts the Registrar’s Office and asks who the new advisor should be. The advisor then delivers the signed Change of Advisor Form to the newly designated advisor. The new advisor signs the Change of Advisor Form and forwards the signed Change of Advisor Form to the Registrar’s Office for recording.

7.8.4 Course Changes and Drops

All course changes and drops during the registration period are made in the Registrar’s Office. During the regular drop/add period, the student must obtain a drop/add card from the Registrar’s Office. This card must then be signed by the advisor, the instructor of the class that is dropped or added, and the Business Office. The drop/add card is then returned to the Registrar’s Office for processing.

7.8.5 Graduation Requirements

Though the college catalog is not a binding legal document, it is the intent of the college to allow the student the option of graduating under the catalog in effect at the time of entry (assuming that there has not been a two-year break in enrollment) or under the one in effect at the time the student wishes to graduate. However, students are required to comply with all of the requirements of one or the other. They cannot choose to comply with parts of one and parts of another.

7.8.6 Class Rolls

On the first day of class, instructors will receive an unofficial roll from which roll will be taken for the first five days of classes. A student who is not on the roll should be sent to the Registrar's Office for clarification, and under no circumstances should a student be allowed to attend class if his/her name is not on the official roll. The instructor should also indicate if a student is not attending class during this initial time.

7.8.7 Required Format for Syllabi

The college has adopted the following format for all syllabi:

At the first class meeting, all faculty members should introduce their courses clearly in terms of objectives, topics to be covered, types of learning activities, number and nature of tests and reports, and system of evaluation and grading. In addition, it is also beneficial to suggest course-specific study and reading strategies.

7.8.9 Office Hours
Faculty members should announce their office hours to their students and post their schedules on their office doors. Faculty should be available consistently during those hours. The total office hours shall not be less than ten hours per week and should include morning and afternoon periods on most days. Other conference hours should be arranged for the mutual convenience of students and faculty members.

7.8.10 Research and Scholarship

While the primary mission of East Georgia College is undergraduate teaching, faculty may from time to time receive grants for research. Faculty members who receive a grant may be given release time to conduct research. See statutes, Article IV, Section J, for additional information.

7.8.11 Service

The service role constitutes all faculty activities linked to academic specialty, faculty status, or professional/personal skills which promote the mission of the institution at the department, school, college, system or larger community levels. (In general, compensated activities will not be considered service if department chair or other administrator determines that these activities do not interfere with the faculty member’s primary duties or constitute second employment).

7.8.12 Textbook Adoption

Unless special justification can be established, a single textbook (or set of textbooks) should be used by all sections in a multi-sectioned course. Changes in textbooks should be made one semester in advance or the semester prior to the term in which they will be used.

7.9 Working Conditions

7.9.1 Office Space

Division chairs, in conjunction with the vice president for academic affairs, assign office spaces for faculty members.

Personal Computers/Printers

All full-time faculty members are provided personal computers for use in their offices. Part-time faculty members also have access to personal computers but may be asked to share computer resources with other part-time faculty and/or staff. All computers provided to faculty are standard IBM compatible.
Document printing is handled by shared network laser printers available in each division of the main campus and/or by local office printers. Local office printers vary in type and capability.

Faculty Email

Electronic mail (Email) is provided to faculty members via the campus Email server. Faculty members are encouraged to use this service and should contact Academic Computing or Administrative Computing to obtain instructions for use of an Email account. The East Georgia College Campus Email Policy should be referred to for more detailed utilization information. This policy is accessible via the College webpage at www.ega.edu. A list of Email addresses is available on the EGC intranet.

Internet Access

Faculty computers capable of accessing the Internet are configured for this service by Computer Services. Two software programs are available for Internet browsing, Netscape Navigator and Microsoft Internet Explorer. The East Georgia College Campus Internet Policy should be referred to for more detailed information regarding Internet utilization on campus. This policy will be accessible via the campus intranet.

7.9.2 Extra-Institutional Employment

a. An employee of the University System shall not engage in any occupation, pursuit, or endeavor which will interfere with the regular and punctual discharge of official duties.

b. Professional employees are encouraged to participate in professional activity that does not interfere with the regular and punctual discharge of official duties provided the activity meets one of the following criteria:

1. is a means of personal professional development;

2. serves the community, state, or nation; or

3. is consistent with the objectives of the institution.

c. For all activities, except single-occasion activities, the employee shall report in writing through official channels the proposed arrangements and secure the approval of the president, or designate, prior to engaging in the activities. Such activities include consulting, teaching, speaking, and participating in business or service enterprises.

7.9.3 Nepotism
1. The basic criteria for the employment of classified employees in the several institutions of the University System shall be appropriate qualifications and performance as set forth in the policies of the Board of Regents. Relationship by a family or marriage shall constitute neither an advantage nor disadvantage.

2. No individual shall be employed in a department or unit which will result in the existence of a subordinate-superior relationship between such individual and any relative of such individual through any line of authority. As used herein, “line of authority” shall mean authority extending vertically through one or more organizational levels of supervision or management.

3. For the purpose of this policy, relatives are defined as husbands and wives, parents and children, brothers and sisters, and any in-law of any of the foregoing.

4. Sub-section 2 will not apply to:

   a. temporary or part-time employment of any children under age 25:

   b. any individuals as of February 14, 1990, at any institution where a relative of such individual then holds a superior position at least one level of supervision removed from such individual in any line of authority; or

   c. exceptions approved by the Board of Regents upon recommendation of the Chancellor as being clearly in the best interest of the Institution and the University System.

7.9.4 Security

A security officer is on duty at all times. Faculty should notify the security officer when on campus during times when classes are not in session. The Security Office is located in the lower level of the Academic Building near the library. Security can be reached by dialing 478-289-2090 or 912-682-0859.

Key Control

Keys are issued in the Business Office upon approval of the division chairs. A record is kept of keys assigned to each individual, and keys must be turned in when employment terminates. If a key is lost, the Business Office should be notified. Keys cannot be duplicated.

7.9.6 Political Activities
As responsible and interested citizens in a democratic society, employees of the University System are encouraged to fulfill their civic obligations and otherwise engage in the normal political processes of society. Nevertheless, it is inappropriate for System personnel to manage or enter political campaigns while on duty to perform services for the System or to hold elective political office at the state or federal level while employed by the University System. Therefore, the following policies governing political activities have been adopted at East Georgia College:

a. Employees may not manage or take an active part in a political campaign which interferes with the performance of duties or services for which compensation is received from the System.

b. Employees may not hold elective political office at the state or federal level.

c. Employees who seek elective political office at the state or federal level must first request a leave of absence without pay beginning prior to qualification as a candidate in a primary or general election and ending after the general or final election. If elected to state or federal office, such person must resign prior to assuming office.

d. Employees may seek and hold elective office at other than the state or federal level, or appointive office, when such candidacy for or holding of the office does not conflict or interfere with the employee’s duties and responsibilities to the institution or the System.

7.10 Faculty Development

Faculty Performance Plans

Faculty are required to prepare a Faculty Performance Plan for each academic year and give these to their division chairs at the time requested. The plan must include “precise activities to achieve the goals set, a time frame for achievement, and criteria to determine progress”. Faculty should work with their division chairs in the development of the plan. The three areas of teaching, service, and professional development must be included. These are the same areas for tenure and promotion. A copy of the detailed guidelines can be found in the appendix.

Professional Development and Achievement

The professional development and achievement role encompasses original contributions to knowledge or understanding; creative work in the arts; efforts which advance scholarship and/or improve professional competence; and endeavors which contribute to the teaching/learning process of college education.

7.11 Academic Freedom and Responsibility
Members of the faculty are free to express, inside or outside the classroom, opinions on any matter that falls within the field of knowledge the faculty members are employed to teach, subject only to those restrictions that are imposed by high professional ethics, fair-mindedness, common sense, accurate expression, and a generous respect for the rights, feelings, and opinions of others.

It is the faculty members’ scholarship in their disciplines which entitles them to teach. As members of a learned profession and of the academic community, faculty members have an obligation to respect the dignity of others.

Academic Freedom shall be distinguished clearly from constitutional freedom, which all citizens enjoy equally under the law. Academic Freedom is an additional assurance to those who teach and pursue knowledge, and thus, properly should be restricted to rights of expression pertaining to teaching and research within their areas of recognized professional competencies. Beyond this, expressions by members of the academic community carry no more weight or protection than accorded any other citizen under the guarantee of constitutional rights; that is, outside of one’s professional field, one must accept the same responsibility which all other individuals bear for their acts and utterances. In these cases, there is and should be no guaranteed immunity from possible criticism under the guise of academic freedom; however, when a member of the academic community speaks or writes as a citizen, the faculty member should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but as persons of learning, faculty members should remember that the public may judge the education profession and institution by their utterances. Therefore, the faculty should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should indicate that they are NOT speaking for the Institution.

Personal written utterances, from members of the faculty to public officials, editors, or others shall be written on personal, not college stationery. No mention of rank or college affiliation should be made. Personal written utterances when typed on University System stationery will be construed by the public as representative of the Institution or the University System, and therefore, should be avoided.

The universal responsibility of the teaching faculty member is effective teaching. A proper academic climate can be maintained only when members of the academic community meet their fundamental responsibilities regularly, such as preparing for an meeting their assignments, conferring with and advising students, evaluating fairly and reporting promptly in all student achievements, and participating in group deliberations which contribute to the growth and development of students and the institution. All members of the academic community also have the responsibility to accept those reasonable duties assigned to them within their fields of competency, whether curricular, co-curricular, or extra-curricular. Additionally, the concept of institutional loyalty still has a proper place within the academic community to accept, honestly and with good faith, to preserve and defend the institution and its goals, without restricting the rights to advocate change.

7.12 Grievance and Conflict Resolution Procedures

Conflict Resolution Procedures

The college has established conflict resolution procedures to hear disputes of college employees and students who have not received satisfaction in the resolution of a dispute. Disputes that are not resolved with an immediate supervisor should be taken to the Conflict Resolution Committee for mediation. A copy of the Mediation Procedures for Employees and Students is in the appendix.

Grievance Procedures

The Board of Review may consider the grievance of any faculty member or classified employee which is reasonably related to the terms and conditions of his/her employment and which is supported by affidavit of the grievant or other credible evidence and timely filed in accordance with the procedures set forth in the East Georgia College grievance procedures. See copy of the procedures in the appendix.

7.13 Salary

7.13.1 Salary Raises

Salary raises are used as one instrument to improve the quality of the college’s personnel and through its personnel, its own performance as an institution. The Board of Regents’ policy requires that salary increases be based upon merit.

The following system was designed to insure that faculty members are evaluated fairly and that the evaluation process becomes an instrument to promote changes as needed. The system employs a series of salary steps. The average dollar raise to be available is equal to two steps. Individual faculty members are rated as deserving raises between one and three steps. Those faculty who are not thought to be deserving of a one step raise should not be retained, and faculty members with marginal performance will be discouraged from remaining here, while those with above average performance will be encouraged to do so. Raises beyond three steps will rarely be justifiable. Individuals who consistently perform at the “noteworthy” level can be justly rewarded and retained by annual three step increases.

7.13.2 Procedure for Salary Increases

The vice president for academic affairs requests written recommendations from all division chairs on the step increases they recommend for each of their faculty. The vice president for academic affairs then makes recommendations to the president. Each proposed step increase should be justified in terms of the following criteria: teaching performance, research and other scholarly work, professional activities and advanced studies, service on institutional projects and committees, assistance with student activities, and participation in Lifelong Education programs and civic activities. In addition, the vice president for academic affairs may make recommendations to rectify inequities in salaries.

Example

The average step increase for each division will normally equal two.

The president may choose to modify some of the recommended step increases for certain reasons, such as to rectify major inequities or to adjudicate differences in proposals between the vice president for academic affairs and a division chair. Once funds for salary increases are allocated by the Board of Regents, the amount of money equal to the various step raises can then be determined.

7.13.3 Paychecks

Salary paychecks for employees paid on a monthly basis are normally distributed on the 30th of each month. When the 30th falls on a weekend, paychecks will be issued on the preceding Friday. Direct deposit is also available. Any changes in the payroll (new employees, terminations, deductions, etc.) must be reported in the Payroll Office fifteen working days before the change goes into effect.

Academic-year contracts are divided into ten equal payments, beginning with August 30th and continuing through mid-May. In December, paychecks are distributed at the end of the term (usually the second week in December).

Payroll deductions will be made for federal and state withholding taxes, social security, and teachers’ retirement or an optional retirement plan (ORP). Faculty should see the Personnel Office for details concerning which ORPs are currently available. Optional deductions include tax-sheltered annuities, health insurance, dental insurance, dependent and employee life insurance, long-term disability, and savings bonds.
Faculty on leave with pay will normally receive a pro rata monthly check, contingent upon the fiscal contract signed by the member and college, beginning with the completion of the first month of leave, unless other arrangements are made. Such special arrangements shall not involve payments in advance of leave time served.

Salary for teaching in the summer session is currently $875.00 per credit hour for employees on nine months appointments. Summer classes will require a minimum enrollment for full pay.

7.14 Faculty Obligations

7.14.1 Faculty Annual Reports

During the spring term, faculty are required to complete their Annual Reports and submit them to their divisions chairs. A copy of this form can be found on the EGC intranet. It is suggested that faculty have this form stored in their computers so that they can work on the form periodically throughout the academic year.

7.14.2 Academic Processions and Regalia

Members of the faculty are expected to attend all formal academic exercises of the college and to wear on such occasions appropriate academic regalia. Absences from formal academic exercises must be approved by the president of the college.

7.14.3 Faculty Liability

Occasionally, questions arise concerning the liability of faculty for injuries to students engaged in laboratory work, physical education, and field trips. Since faculty members are employees of the State, they enjoy sovereign immunity in the performance of their duties. It is well-established in Georgia that a suit against the State cannot be maintained without its consent, nor may such an action be maintained against an officer or employee of the State in his or her official capacity (Roberts v. Barwick, 187 Ga. 691 [1939]). However, if faculty members should commit some act of negligence, they could be individually and personally liable to the injured party. See personal liability insurance under Fringe Benefits and also a copy of the Release and Assumption of Risk form located on the intranet.

7.14.4 End-of-Term/End-of-Year Procedures

At the end of each term, the following items should be completed:

1. Grades should be recorded on the final class roll and filed in the Registrar’s Office.

2. Vacation address, telephone number, date of departure, and date of expected return should be filed with the division chair and the vice president for academic affairs.

3. The faculty Annual Report should be filed with the division chair (end of spring term only, if no earlier deadline has been set).

7.14.5 Financial and Business Affairs

The Business Office needs verification that the material has been received as ordered or that the service billed for has been performed. All receipts, packing slips, or invoices for merchandise received should be properly verified, signed, and forwarded to the Business Office no later than the day after the merchandise is received.

7.14.6 College-wide Faculty Meetings

A general faculty meeting shall be scheduled each term. All teaching faculty and the general administrative staff shall be in attendance, unless excused by the president. The teaching faculty may meet as a separate group on occasion as determined by the vice president for academic affairs. All shall be in attendance unless excused by the vice president for academic affairs. Division faculty may meet on a regular basis as determined by the division chair.
8. LEAVES AND FRINGE BENEFITS

8.1 Leaves

8.1.1 Sick Leave with Pay

For all regular full-time employees of the University System of Georgia defined in Section 801 of the Regents’ Policy Manual, sick leave shall be at the rate of one working day (8 hours) per calendar month of service. Regular part-time employees working one-half time or more will accumulate sick leave in an equivalent ratio to their percentage of time employed. Sick leave for employees shall be cumulative.

Sick leave may be granted at the discretion of the institution and upon approval by the supervisor of an employee’s absence for any of the following reasons:

1. Illness or injury of the employee.

2. Medical and dental treatment or consultation.

3. Quarantine due to a contagious illness in the employee’s household.

4. Illness, injury, or death in the employee’s immediate family requiring the employee’s presence. The definition of “immediate family” for sick leave purposes at East Georgia College includes the employee’s spouse, children, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, father-in-law, and mother-in-law.

If sick leave is claimed for a continuous period in excess of one week, a physician’s statement is required to permit further claim of sick leave regardless of the reason for requesting the use of sick leave. A terminating employee shall not accumulate sick leave or be entitled to receive sick pay after the last working day of employment.

Sick leave is a privilege. Abuse is a serious offense and may constitute grounds for dismissal.

Employees must notify their supervisors if they are ill and unable to report to work. Upon return to work, the employee must fill out the sick leave portion of the Request for Leave form immediately. Request for Leave forms are available from the division secretary and on the intranet.

8.1.2 Sick Leave Without Pay

Any employee unable to return to work after exhausting all accumulated sick leave and accrued vacation leave may be granted sick leave without pay for a period not to exceed one year. Furthermore, such approved sick leave shall allow the employee the right to elect to continue his or her group insurance benefits and the institution will continue its share of the cost for such period. All other benefits are prohibited which otherwise would accrue to the employee.

8.1.3 Education Leave Without Pay

Institutions may grant educational leave without pay to full-time employees for periods not to exceed one year at a time for the purpose of encouraging professional development. Such approved leave shall allow the employee the right to elect to continue group insurance benefits with institutional participation.

8.1.4 Military Leave

Ordered military duty

For the purpose of this policy, ordered military duty performed in the service of the State or the United States, including but not limited to service schools conducted by the armed forces of the United States. Such duty, performed for a period or periods not exceeding a total of thirty (30) days in any one calendar year, shall be deemed “ordered military duty” regardless of whether the orders are issued with the consent of the employee.

Leave of Absence

An employee who receives orders for active military duty shall be entitled to absent himself or herself from his or her duties and shall be deemed to have a leave of absence with pay for the period of such ordered duty, and while going to and returning from such duty, not to exceed a total of eighteen (18) work days in any one calendar year and not exceeding eighteen (18) work days in any one continuous period of absence (as authorized by Georgia Law O.C.G.A. 38-2-279[e]). At the expiration of the maximum paid leave time, continued absence by the employee shall be considered as military leave without pay. The employee shall be required to submit a copy of his or her orders to active duty.

Emergency Leave of Absence

Notwithstanding the foregoing leave limitations of eighteen (18) days, in the event the Governor declares an emergency and orders an employee to State duty as a member of the National Guard, such employee while performing such duty shall be paid his or her salary or other compensation as an employee for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days in one calendar year and not exceeding thirty (30) days in any continuous period of such State active duty service.
Payment of Annual Leave

After an employee has exhausted his or her paid military leave an institution may pay the employee for his or her accumulated annual leave.

8.1.5 Maternity Leave

Disability due to pregnancy shall be considered as any other disability and appropriate sick leave provisions of these policies shall apply.

8.1.6 Family Leave

Any employee who has been employed on a half-time basis or greater for at least twelve months is eligible for twelve work weeks of family leave during a twelve month period commencing on the date the family leave begins. Family leave shall be unpaid leave; however, if an employee is eligible to use accumulated sick leave the employee, after obtaining permission from the employer, may do so exclusive of the twelve weeks of family leave. The employee may also utilize any accrued annual leave with the approval of the employer.

Family leave shall be granted to an eligible employee in the event of:

a. the birth of the child of the employee;

b. the placement of a child with the employee for adoption;

c. a serious health condition of the employee’s child, spouse, parent or spouse’s parent necessitating the employee’s presence; or

d. a serious health condition of the employee which renders him or her unable to perform the duties of his or her job.

With certain exceptions as indicated in the Family Leave Acts (Public Law 103-3 and Georgia Laws 1992, p. 1855; O.C.G.A. Title 45, Chapter 24), family leave entitles the employee to be restored to the position held prior to going on family leave or an equivalent position with equivalent benefits and pay. Family leave allows the employee to maintain his or her benefits during the period of leave with instructional participation in the payment of premiums.

8.1.7 Miscellaneous Leave

a. FLSA- When exempt employees are absent from work for less than one scheduled work day and their accumulated leave is insufficient to cover the partial day of absence, they shall be placed on FLSA leave with pay for the period of absence.
b. Court Duty- Court duty with pay shall be granted to regular employees for the purpose of serving on a jury or as a witness. Such leave shall be granted upon presentation of officials orders from the appropriate court.

c. Voting- Employees of the University System are encouraged to exercise their constitutional right to vote in all federal, state, and local elections. When an employee’s normal working hours coincide with voting hours, the employee shall be granted leave, as stipulated by the immediate supervisor, for the purpose of voting.

d. Selective Service and Military Physical Examinations- Any regular employee required by Federal law to take a Selective Service or Military physical examination shall be paid for any lost hours to take such an examination.

e. Personal Leave- At the discretion of the President of an institution, personal leaves of absence without pay for periods not to exceed one year may be approved. Such approved personal leave shall allow the employee the right to elect to continue group insurance benefits.

f. Other Leave- In the event of inclement weather or any emergency which requires leaves of absences of employees, the President of such unit in the System may declare leave with or without pay.

8.1.8 Faculty Absences

Faculty members shall report for each term on the date and the time published by the college. Only extreme emergencies are considered as valid excuses for not reporting on time. The vice president for academic affairs must be notified as soon as possible and, in turn, will immediately notify the president. Faculty are expected to meet all classes without fail. When a faculty member must be absent, for whatever reason, he/she shall notify the division chair and shall make arrangements so that classes will be met in the instructor’s absence. The division chairs shall report all absences to the vice president for academic affairs in writing, giving details for the absence. Faculty who teach at off-campus sites are expected to notify the site director’s office if they are going to be absent as well as the appropriate division chair at East Georgia College.

8.1.9 Vacation Leave

Faculty members employed on an academic year (nine months) basis do not earn vacation time. Faculty members on 12 month contracts accrue annual leave based on length of service:

8.2.1 Insurance

Life and Health Insurance

The health benefits plan and the group life insurance plan are offered through the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.

Health Insurance: Single and family coverage is available after the deduction is met. Approximately 80% of the premium is paid by the employer with the remaining 20% paid by the employee.

Details about benefits and premiums are listed in brochures in the Business Office.

Personal Liability Insurance

The college provides personal liability insurance coverage at no expense to the employee. The purpose of this coverage is to protect the employee from claims while acting in an official capacity. This insurance does not provide coverage for employees who are traveling on official business in a personal vehicle. Employees are responsible for carrying adequate personal liability insurance.

Insurance Coverage for Exhibits or Private Collections
The State Insurance Program provides an all-risks insurance rider that protects the owner of an exhibit or private collection for losses incurred on campus. The vice president for fiscal affairs should be notified of the name of the owner, the articles on exhibit, their value, and the dates of the exhibit two weeks in advance of the occasion.

8.2.2 Retirement and Pension

All eligible employees are required to participate in the Teachers’ Retirement System of Georgia or an optional retirement plan (ORP).

1. The major provisions of the Teachers’ Retirement Plan are as follows:
   a. The member’s contribution is 5% of total salary; the state matching contribution is 11.81%.
   b. Benefits are based on the following formula: Two x the number of years of creditable services x the average annual salary for the employee’s two highest consecutive years of service.
   c. Maximum benefit at age 65 with 40 or more years of service is 80%.
   d. A member may retire with 30 years of service regardless of age or after age 60 with 10 or more years of service.

2. Employees of the University System of Georgia may apply for a refund of their contributions after but not before the date of their termination. (The vice president for fiscal affairs has the necessary forms). A refund can be expected within four to six weeks after the application is received by the Retirement System.

The Retirement System credits interest to active members’ accounts annually each June 30th on the previous June 30 account balance. Members who withdraw their contributions will be paid all interest which had accumulated to their accounts as of the June 30 preceding the date of withdrawal.

3. Employees who have a question about their status or benefits should request information directly from the Teachers’ Retirement System.

4. For additional information on ORP, contact the Business Office.

8.2.3 Salary Continuation Plan—Long-Term Disability

The Salary Continuation Plan is an additional option of the group insurance plan. All premiums are payable by the employee. This plan provides for the continuation of salary under certain conditions of illness or injury. Details about the plan can also be obtained from the Business Office.

8.2.4 Tax-Sheltered Annuities

The Internal Revenue Service permits tax-sheltered annuities for employees of nonprofit organizations. The college provides payroll deductions for employees who have a tax-sheltered annuity. The college does not have an approved insurance company and does not recommend a particular insurer; however, the Business Office can supply a list of annuity providers currently used by other employees. Selecting an insurer is a private decision made by each employee. Employees who select a tax-sheltered annuity provider must notify the Business Office.

8.2.5 Social Security

The college participates in the Federal Social Security Program. The current rate of contribution is 7.65 percent of the first $65,400 of salary by both the employer and the employee.

8.3 Outer Fringe Benefits

8.3.1 Tuition Abatement

Faculty may take courses for credit or work on a degree provided that they fulfill their contractual obligations and pay the required fees. Faculty may take courses at East Georgia College on a noncredit basis if space is available. Full-time employees who have been employed at East Georgia College for at least six months are eligible to participate in the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement Program. See the appendix for a copy of the detailed guidelines on tuition remission and reimbursement.

8.3.2 Faculty Development Opportunities/Faculty and Staff Development Plan

Purpose

East Georgia College seeks to create professional development opportunities that are consistent both with the needs of the faculty and staff and with the mission of the college. The rapid expansion of knowledge across many disciplines attests to the increasing importance of lifelong learning to achieving career success. As an employer, East Georgia College can play a vital role in assisting its employees to further develop their knowledge and skills. By promoting the development of an energized and confident team of employees, the college’s presence in the communities it serves is in turn energized.

Development Objectives
The following objectives will provide the focus for the college’s development activities:

1. Faculty and staff are encouraged to participate in those development activities that will renew their enthusiasm, vitality, and spirit of inquiry.

2. Because East Georgia College is a two-year institution, its primary mission is to deliver effective teaching to the communities it serves. Thus, the primary objective of the college’s development plan is to facilitate improvements in teaching. Faculty and staff may apply for financial support to improve teaching methods and introduce new teaching technologies to the classroom.

3. Faculty and staff may apply for financial support to stay abreast with developments in their disciplines and to take advantage of opportunities for interdisciplinary study and research.

4. Faculty and staff may apply for financial support to develop expertise beyond their specific disciplines when these efforts enable East Georgia College to respond with more flexibility to the needs of the communities in its service area.

Responsibilities for Faculty and Staff Development

Faculty and staff members bear the primary responsibility for their own development. This includes completing the requirements for the appropriate graduate degree in their disciplines.

Beyond this point, continued development is accomplished through a partnership between the individual faculty or staff member and East Georgia College. The college will give priority to supporting those development activities that most directly enhance its ability to deliver educational programs appropriate to the needs of its service area and to its status as a two-year institution.

The college will support development efforts through state funding set aside for development and through grant funds from internal foundations set up to support development. In addition, the college will assist faculty and staff in taking advantage of the University System’s programs for tuition remission and reimbursement.

The efforts of faculty and staff in participating in development activities will be an important evaluation criterion in the tenure, promotion, and post-tenure review process.

Current Faculty and Staff Development Opportunities
There are a variety of opportunities for faculty and staff development. Appropriate vehicles for development include

1. Attending off-campus addresses by guest speakers on specific topics of importance.

2. Participating in research projects and foreign travel.

3. Participating in workshops, seminars, and institutes that either update technical skills or provide a fresh perspective on a topic of interest to the individual faculty or staff member.

4. Completing course work that enhances the preparation of faculty and staff members to perform their duties, but cannot be funded through the tuition remission and reimbursement program.

5. Pursuing additional degrees if this activity can be shown to contribute to the college’s ability to respond to the needs of the communities it serves, but cannot be funded through the tuition remission and reimbursement program.

Process for Supporting and Evaluating Faculty and Staff Development

The development plan should be no more than two pages in length, including a one-page application form. The application form contains sections for

1. A description of the activity.
2. A statement explaining the benefits from participating in the activity.
3. A statement of the outcome to be expected.
4. A budget detailing the use of the funds to be granted.

Faculty and staff members should submit their applications for funding to the chair of the Faculty and Staff Development Committee by the semester deadline. The following days are the deadlines for submitting applications.

- Fall Semester: Last Friday in August
- Spring Semester: Last Friday in January
- Summer Semester: Last Friday in March

The application process is designed to allow both peers and supervisors the opportunity to review applications and make their recommendations. All applications are subject to the final approval of the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Student Services. The steps in the application process are listed below.

1. Faculty and staff may submit their applications to the chair of the Faculty and Staff Development Committee at any time prior to the semester deadline during which the activity will take place.
2. A peer committee will be appointed by the Faculty and Staff Development Committee for each application received. The peer committee will submit its recommendation based on majority vote to the applicant’s supervisor.

3. The applicant’s supervisor will review the application and send it, along with his or her recommendation, to the Faculty and Staff Development Committee for review.

4. The Faculty and Staff Development Committee will consider applications submitted to it by the peer committees. The Faculty and Staff Development Committee will submit its recommendations based on majority vote to Vice President for Academic Affairs and Student Services.

5. Final approval for each application will be given by the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Student Services.

Following the submission deadlines, each step in the application process should normally take no longer than two weeks. For those plans that do not secure funding, applicants will be informed as to why their applications were not funded.

Depending on the duration of the development activities, employees may be required to provide progress reports to their supervisors. The development objectives achieved by the activities completed during an academic year should be cited in a faculty member’s annual report for that year.

Faculty and Staff Development Committee Membership

The Faculty and Staff Development Committee will include

- Three faculty members – one from each division

I. Name

The Grievance Committee at East Georgia College shall be known as the Board of Review.

II. Purpose

The Board of Review is established to provide a means to hear the complaints of college employees (faculty members and classified personnel) who have exhausted normal channels of appeal but whom have not received satisfaction in the resolution of a grievance. Normal channels shall be construed to mean an appeal to administrative officers, through and including at least one level of authority higher than the grievant’s immediate supervisory, to resolve satisfactorily the grievance.

III. Jurisdiction

A. Grievance Complaints

The Board of Review may consider the grievance of any faculty member or classified employee which is reasonably related to the terms and conditions of his/her employment and which is supported by affidavit of the grievant or other credible evidence and timely filed in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section IX, below.

B. Grievances Referred

Notwithstanding the exclusions set forth in Section III.C below, the Board of Review shall consider any grievance referred to the Board of Review for hearing by the president of the college or the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.

C. Exclusions

The Board of Review may not consider grievances, that concern salary, promotion, or dismissal of any employee, or which involve the award of tenure or nonrenewal of a faculty member unless it is reasonably alleged that the action complained of was the result of discrimination based on race, color, sex, religion, creed, national origin, handicap, or age. Nor shall the Board of Review consider any grievance concerning which the president has made a final decision.

D. Appeal of Academic Decisions

Grievances based on judgment of academic qualifications such as salary, promotion, tenure, or nonrenewal may be appealed at the institution through established channels to the president of the college and, thereafter, to the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia pursuant to the provisions of Article IX of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents.

E. Dismissal of Faculty

Grievances related to the dismissal of tenured faculty or non-tenured faculty during a contract term are governed by Article VI, Sec. B-6-d of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents.

F. Appeals by Classified Employees

Grievances of classified employees which concern salary, promotion, or dismissal are governed by the Personnel Policies of the Business Procedures Manual of the Board of Regents.

IV. Initiation of Grievance

A. Request for Hearing

Any employee (grievant) within thirty days after the occurrence of the alleged act causing the grievance may file a written request for a hearing with the chair of the Board of Review describing the grievance and stating:

1. The actions complained of, including the pertinent facts of the complaint; the date, time, and place of the occurrence; the college policies believed to have been violated or improperly applied. The complaint shall be verified (and sworn to) by the grievant.

2. The names of possible witnesses, if any, and a description of the evidence which may tend to support the complaint.

3. The specified corrective action desired.
B. Determination of Jurisdiction

The chair of the Board of Review, within three days from the filing of the application for hearing by the grievant, shall determine whether the grievance is one which has been properly and timely filed and whether the nature of the grievance is one which may be properly heard by a Board of Review. If so, the chair will instruct the parties as to the procedures to be followed in selecting the panel and members of the Board of Review. If not, the chair will notify the parties and the president of his/her determination and give the reason(s). The president may, nevertheless, direct that the grievance be heard by a duly constituted Board of Review. The chair will within ten days following receipt of a grievance cause the panel and the Review Board to be selected as provided in Section V.B below.

V. Board of Review

A. Selection of Chair

There shall be a chair for each Board of Review, who, along with the alternate chair, shall be elected annually by the faculty of the college from among the tenured faculty of the institution for a one year term, to begin no later than November 30th of each academic year, provided, however, that not more than one person shall be elected from the faculty of any one department of the college. The chair and alternate chair should be briefed thoroughly on the conduct of the grievance mechanism by University System counsel or the affirmative action officer of the college or the University System. The chair and alternate chair shall rotate, on an alternating basis, the duties of the chair.

B. Drawing of Review Panel

All grievances shall be filed in writing with the chair within thirty days after the alleged act prompting the grievance. If the grievance is determined by the chair to be within the jurisdiction of the Board, he/she shall draw a panel of nine persons as potential members of the Board, by lot, or other random process, from a list of eligible faculty members or classified employees, as appropriate to each case. When grievances involve only faculty member(s), the chair shall draw the nine-member panel from faculty members having at least one academic year (nine months) of continuous service at the college. (Note: Faculty members shall be construed to mean those persons defined as “faculty” by the Bylaws and Policies of the Board of Regents, the Statutes of the college, and those persons appointed by the president to administrative positions at the institution.) For grievances between faculty members and classified personnel, the chair shall draw four members of the panel from eligible faculty members and five members from eligible classified employees, all of whom shall have at least nine months of continuous service at the college. (Note: Classified personnel shall be construed to mean the persons defined as “classified personnel” by the personnel policies of the Business Procedures Manual of the Board of Regents.) For grievances involving classified employees only, the chair shall draw the nine-member panel from the names of classified employees’ having at least nine months of continuous service at the college. A new panel for each grievance shall be drawn by the chair in the presence of the chief personnel officer or the affirmative action officer of the college who shall certify to the president that the panel drawing process has been impartially executed.

C. With the exceptions of the president, all full-time employees (faculty and classified) having at least one academic year (nine months) of continuous service at the college are potential panel members of the Board of Review. Employees’ names shall be removed from the pool if employment terminates, an employee is a grievant, or an employee is named or otherwise directly involved in the grievance.

D. Excusing Panel Members

Panel members who are drawn as possible Board of Review members may be excused by the chair if he/she determines that (1) there is a bona fide conflict of interest between the panel member(s) and either of the parties of the grievance, (2) the potential panel member is ill, (3) service on the Board of Review should be excused for good cause shown.

E. Selection of Review Board

Each Review Board shall consist of the chair (non-voting) and three voting members chosen from a panel of nine, constituted as set forth in Section V B above. Upon notification of the names of the panel members, each party shall in the presence of the chair strike the names of three persons from the panel. The parties shall alternate in exercising their strikes, beginning with the grievant, until three members remain. These three members shall constitute the Board of Review. It is anticipated that this “striking” process will be completed within five days following the selection of the panel by the chair.

F. Removal of Review Board Members for Cause

A party may present a request in writing, at least three days in advance of any hearing, to the chair, to remove any member of the Board for reasonable cause. If the chair grants the request, he/she shall fill the vacancy thus created by random selection of another member, according to the process described in Section IV.B above. The member chosen to fill the vacancy may likewise be removed for reasonable cause. The chair may on his/her own motion remove any member for reasonable cause stated.

G. Notice of Hearing

After the Board of Review (three members) has been selected as aforesaid, written notice of the date and time set for hearing shall be hand-delivered or mailed to the parties and to the members of the Board of Review by the chair, no less than three nor more than ten working days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

VI. Duties of Chair

The chair of each Board of Review shall not vote but shall be responsible for the conduct of the hearing, the interpretation, and the implementation of these grievance procedures. His/her duties shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Assuring that all parties are familiar with the grievance procedures.

2. Receiving the grievance and determining that it is one which is properly heard by a Board of Review (if not, the grievant shall be notified in writing) and whether it has been timely filed as provided in Section IV.A, above.

3. Drawing, at random, within five working days following receipt of a written grievance, a panel of nine persons as potential members of the Board of Review from the pool of faculty or classified employees, or both (See Section V.B above) as the case may be, having at least one academic year (nine months) of continuous service at the institution.

4. Notifying the parties (1) whether the grievance is one which is properly heard by a duly constituted Board of Review, and if so (2) that a hearing of nine panel members has been drawn, and (3) that each party should come before him/her on a date certain and strike the names of three panelists.

5. Distributing the complaint (grievance) to the opposite party and members of the Board of Review, setting a date for the hearing after conferring with the Board of Review members.

6. Convening the hearing after written notice (at least three but not more than ten working days in advance of the hearing) to the members of the Board of Review and the parties; conducting and presiding over the hearing; ruling on motions of the parties and assisting the Board of Review during its deliberations.

7. Assuring that a tape recording or transcript of the hearing is made and retained for use in the event an appeal is filed.

VII. Hearing Procedure

In all instances where a hearing is conducted, the following procedures shall apply:

1. The hearing before the Board of Review will be conducted in private; however, the parties may select one person to attend as an observer.

2. Attorneys are not authorized to participate in grievance hearings; however, the grievant may select an advisor, other than an attorney, from the college to assist him/her at the hearing.

3. A tape recording, transcript, or written summary of the proceedings shall be kept and made available to the parties concerned at reasonable cost.

4. The parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to obtain and present witnesses and relevant documents or other evidence concerning the subject matter of the complaint.

5. The parties shall have the right to cross-examine witnesses against them. Should a witness be unable to appear because of illness or other cause acceptable to the chair, the sworn statement (affidavit) of the witness may be introduced into the record.

6. An oath or affirmation shall be administered to all witnesses by a notary public.

7. The Board of Review will not be bound by strict rules of legal evidence. It may receive any evidence deemed by the chair to be of probative value in determining the issues involved. Every possible effort shall be made to obtain the most reliable evidence available. All questions as to the admissibility of evidence or other procedural matters shall be decided by the chair.
8. The Board of Review shall make no decision on the merits but shall state its Findings which shall be based on the evidence introduced at the hearing. The chair will report the Findings to the grievant and president. The Board of Review may also submit Confidential Recommendation(s) to the president as provided in Article VIII.

9. Public statements and publicity about the complaint shall be avoided, and the confidentiality of the hearing shall be preserved.

VIII. Findings and Recommendations by the Board

The Findings of the majority of the Board of Review shall be sent by the chair to the president and the grievant no later than ten working days following the hearing, unless a transcript of the hearing is required, in which event Findings shall be sent no later than ten working days following receipt of the transcript. The Board of Review may, in addition to its Findings, make Confidential Recommendation(s) (if any) to the president. The Findings and Confidential Recommendation(s) (if any) made by the Board of Review to the president shall be advisory only and shall in no way bind or commit him/her to any suggested course of action.

IX. Action by the President

In making his/her decision, the president will not be bound by the Findings or Confidential Recommendation(s) (if any) of the Board of Review. The president should, within ten working days after receipt of such written notification of the Findings and Confidential Recommendation(s) (if any) of the Board of Review, advise the faculty member or classified employee, his or her direct supervisor, and other parties concerned in writing of his/her decision, or he/she may refer the matter back to the chair of the Board of Review for further response and recommendation(s) before rendering his/her final decision. The employee should also be advised by the president in writing of his/her right to apply to the Board of Regents for review of the president’s final decision in accordance with the provisions of Article IX of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents. The Board of Regents has the power to remedy any practices which violate the University System’s commitment to nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunity.

X. Time Requirements of the Review Process

The procedure contemplates that grievance panels (nine members) should be constituted within five working days following receipt by the chair of an acceptable written grievance from any employee of the college. The final selection of a three-member Board of Review from the panel should be completed within ten working days after the filing of the alleged grievance. The chair should give written notice of any hearing date to the members of the Board of Review and to parties at least three but no more than ten working days prior to the date set for the hearing. Findings should be forwarded by the Board of Review to the grievant and the president within ten working days from the conclusion of the hearing unless a transcript of the evidence is required. If a transcript of the evidence is required, such documents should be forwarded to the president within ten working days after receipt of the transcript from the chair. Confidential Recommendation(s) (if any) should likewise be sent to the president within ten working days. The final decision of the president should be made within ten working days thereafter, unless he/she refers the matter back to the Board of Review for further response and recommendation(s). Appeals to the Board of Regents shall be filed within twenty days after a final decision by the president.

XI. Retaliatory Action

A grievant shall not be harassed, intimidated, or otherwise penalized for utilization of the grievance procedures.
Conflict Resolution: Mediation Procedures for Employees and Students

I. Definitions

A. The term “disputant(s)”/ “party(ies)” shall mean an employee or groups of employees, a student or group of students who have a perceived conflict.

B. “Mediation” is a structured conflict resolution process in which a person with no interest in the outcome of the conflict/dispute assists the parties in reaching a negotiated settlement of their differences. The mediation process is voluntary and aims at a signed agreement defining the future behavior of the parties. A mediator helps parties communicate, negotiate, and reach agreements and settlements but is not empowered to render a decision. The process will be encouraged by the college.

C. “Mediators” are those employees trained by the Consortium on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution (CNCR) in conjunction with the Chancellor’s Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolutions.

D. “The Campus Conflict Resolution Committee” (CCRC) is a standing committee of East Georgia College. The CCRC will be responsible for, communicating the purpose of mediation, keeping the procedures updated and relevant, and designing and conducting education in conflict management. The CCRC shall be composed of 7 individuals. All positions will be appointed by the president on an annual basis. All full-time employees, faculty/staff, and classified personnel, having at least one academic year (nine months) of continuous service at the college and all currently enrolled second year students are potential members of the CCRC.

II. Purpose

The purpose of mediation is to provide a means to resolve conflict at the lowest, most appropriate level. Mediation is a voluntary process available to faculty, staff, classified personnel, and students. Mediators serve as impartial facilitators of the negotiation between the disputants/parties in a private informal setting.

III. Mediation Process

A. The disputant/party should visit the Campus Liaison to discuss the possibility of using mediation.

B. The Campus Liaison shall determine if mediation is appropriate and, if deemed as such, will secure a qualified mediator from the cadre of mediators on campus or from the University System-wide Mediation Program.
C. Once both disputants/parties have agreed to mediate, the mediator will arrange the first meeting.

D. The disputants/parties will meet with the mediator who will guide their discussion and help them work toward a mutually satisfactory solution.

E. If a satisfactory resolution is not reached, then the individuals are free to pursue other avenues such as filing a grievance. (See Faculty Handbook, sec. 7.12 and Employee Handbook, Sec. VII/Appendix).

Disposition of Mediation

After mediation, the mediator shall report to the Conflict Resolution Committee that an agreement has or has not been reached. The mediator is under no further reporting obligations. The committee shall in turn report this finding to the president.

Prohibition of Retaliatory Action

A disputant shall not be harassed, intimidated, or otherwise penalized for utilization of the mediation procedure. Because of the seriousness and demoralizing effects of retaliation, the disputant may elect to petition the Conflict Resolution Committee (CRC) to convene and hear allegations of retaliatory actions toward the disputant. After hearing the allegation, the CRC shall conduct a confidential investigation to determine the validity of the alleged retaliatory actions. If the CRC determines the accusations valid, it shall present its written findings and/or recommendations to the president with a copy to the disputant and the appropriate level of authority above the disputant. If the outcome of the process is not satisfactory to the disputant, recourse will be the Grievance Procedure for East Georgia College.

EAST GEORGIA COLLEGE: TUITION REMISSION AND REIMBURSEMENT
POLICY AND PROCEDURES

The following includes highlights of East Georgia College's tuition remission and reimbursement policies and procedures. A copy of the complete document is available from the Office of the Vice President for Fiscal Affairs.

The tuition remission and reimbursement program is internally funded with limited resources. Thus, participants will be served on a first come, first served basis.

Definitions

Tuition Remission: tuition and fees are waived when you attend your home institution (EGC) for course work. You will need a copy of the completed and approved Application for Remission or Reimbursement form available in the Business Office.

Tuition Reimbursement: tuition and fees are reimbursed to you when you pay to attend another institution (not your home institution). To receive tuition reimbursement, you must make a C or better in the course. Also, any grants or scholarships you receive will be considered when determining how much you will be reimbursed. You will need the following items in order to receive tuition reimbursement:

1. A completed and approved Application for Remission or Reimbursement form.
2. A fee receipt to show that you have paid reimbursable fees.
3. A grade report or certificate of successful completion.
4. Evidence of registration during the employee registration period.
5. A completed Employee Private Institution Attendance Authorization form, if applicable.

Employee Registration: this is the period of time, normally the last hour of registration on registration day, when you can register for courses that have available space.

Eligibility

If you have been a full-time employee at a USG institution for at least six months and are eligible for benefits, you can participate in this program. You must have the approval of your supervisor and the approval of the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement Committee. Additionally, space in class and funds to cover tuition and fees must be available.

An employee who has approval to take courses must meet the institution's requirements for admission. You must follow institutional regulations and academic procedures just like any other student.

You must agree to satisfactorily complete the course(s) you take and to show evidence of completion. If you do not satisfactorily complete the course, or withdraw from the course, or leave the institution before you complete the course, you will have to reimburse the home institution for any tuition for any tuition remission. You will not be able to receive tuition remission or reimbursement until you meet these requirements.

Courses You Can Take

The only courses you can take under this policy are those that are job-related.

What Is a Job-Related Course?

Those courses whose content is of "direct and significant assistance to the employee in carrying out present duties and responsibilities or in his or her professional development."

Courses that are not directly related to a specific job but form part of a job-related degree program that relates to your career also qualify.

Courses that you take for self-enrichment do not qualify.

Each full-time eligible employee can have tuition waived or reimbursed for up to two courses per term with prior approval and with only one course per term to be taken during regularly scheduled working hours.

Courses must be taken for credit at a regionally accredited, degree-granting college or university, including any University System institution or Department of Technical and Adult Education institution.

If you take courses at a private institution, you will only be reimbursed if such courses or their equivalent are not available at a University System institution or DTAE institution within 70 miles of your home institution. Reimbursement for courses taken at a private institution will be limited to the lower in-state rate or an equivalent course at the home institution or another USG institution. In other words, you may not receive full tuition reimbursement. Reimbursement for courses taken at an out-of-state institution is not allowed under this policy unless the degree program you are working toward is not offered at a USG institution.

What Happens If You Withdraw from a Course or Don't Make Good Grades?

If you fail or withdraw from a course and you received tuition remission, you cannot participate in the tuition remission program for six months form the date you withdraw or your grade is sent to the registrar.

If you fail to make a C or better or withdraw from a course under the tuition reimbursement plan, you cannot submit a request for reimbursement. You cannot participate in the tuition reimbursement program for six months.

Educational Aid as Taxable Income

It is the responsibility of the employee as a taxpayer to assess the tax consequences and comply with current tax codes…. as a general rule, educational expenses qualifying as job-related are not reportable by the college as income to the employee.

How to Apply for Tuition Remission/Reimbursement

The deadline for application is 30 days prior to the beginning of the employee registration period for which you are applying.

1. Complete the Application for Remission or Reimbursement form. Because tuition remission/reimbursement is limited to a "space available" basis, you may want to list alternative classes in case the first-choice class(es) is full.

2. Obtain permission from your supervisor to participate in this program. Your supervisor reviews your request to determine if it is job or career related. The supervisor must approve or disapprove the request.

3. If approved, the supervisor forwards your application to the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement Committee. The committee will review the applications and make final approval decisions. You will be notified of that decision before the employee registration period.

4. You must register during the employee registration period. The employee registration period for East Georgia College will be the last hour of registration on the scheduled registration day. East Georgia College employees registering at other USG institutions must adhere to that institution's employee registration dates and times.

5. After you register for your class(es), you must go by the Business Office to assess your fees and notify them that you have been approved for tuition remission. Failure to do so will result in your registration being cancelled. If you are registering for another USG institution, be sure to retain your evidence of registration during their employee registration period and your original fee receipt. These two items are mandatory for fee reimbursement.

6. If you were approved for tuition remission (you are attending East Georgia College), you are required to submit the original grade report to the Human Resources Office within 30 days of the completion of the course. Please make a copy for your records. The original will not be returned to you.

7. If you were approved for tuition reimbursement, you must forward the following items to the Human Resources Office within 30 days of the completion of the course:

   A. A copy of your approved Application for Remission or Reimbursement form.
   B. Official grade report or certificate of completion (must have C or better).
   C. Paid fee receipt.
   D. Evidence of registration during employee registration period.

   Originals of the above will not be returned to you. Please have this information photocopies for your records before you submit them. Within two weeks after the submission of the above items, you will be notified to obtain your reimbursement check from the Business Office.

8. Additionally, you will be required to submit an official transcript to the Human Resources Office once each year that you participate in the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement Program. An official transcript is one that is mailed directly from the institution of attendance to the Human Resources Office—East Georgia College.

Appeals

If your request for tuition remission or reimbursement is not approved by your supervisor, you may appeal that decision directly to the Tuition Remission and Reimbursement Committee. If further denied, you may appeal to the president. You may not appeal to the Board of Regents.
