The second week of school starts the room change process. Since we don't have a lot of vacancies, we have a room swap option so students can find other students to change rooms with. Do you want to change rooms so you can live with your friends, or seek out opportunities to move to the other building? Just not getting along with your roommates and want to seek out other options? Come to the room swap social to meet new friends and find folks who are looking to change rooms just like you. You may find someone who wants your room and you want theirs. Have some free ice cream sundaes as well to take a break from the end of summer heat.
