Welcome faculty and staff to a new semester in a new year! We have so much to be proud of at East Georgia College. Let’s make this our best year yet!

The Glenn Miller Orchestra will perform in the auditorium of the Gambrell Center on Friday, January 23, at 7 p.m. Sponsored by the Vision Series, the concert is free and open to the public. Seating is limited, so come early.

Join us also for a pre-concert reception in the Richard L. Brown Room at 5:30 p.m. The benefit reception tickets include refreshments and reserved concert seating for $50 per person. A portion of the ticket price is tax deductible and proceeds benefit the East Georgia College Student Housing Fund. For more information, please call Elizabeth Gilmer at 478-289-2037.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT NUMBERS FOR SPRING 2009
As of Cat Tracks printing time on January 15th, the total student enrollment for East Georgia College’s Spring Semester 2009 is 2644 students. With 1006 students on campus in Swainsboro and 1638 students at the EGC Statesboro site, this is a 34% jump in enrollment over last Spring 2008. The number of credit hours of study is also up by 35% over the prior Spring. These numbers may vary slightly before the final tally is in, but East Georgia College remains among the top fastest growing two-year colleges in the University System of Georgia.
