      ii. Dr. Derr expressed his concern over some of the wording in certain sections of the Statutes: Dr. Derr moved that the revised EGSC Statute be approved with the removal of the following sections:

         (1) “And Responsibility” from the title of the “Academic Freedom and Responsibility” section, Section H, page 24.

         (2) the entire fifth paragraph in Section H, “Academic Freedom and Responsibility” on page 25, reading as follows:
“The universal responsibility of the teaching faculty member is effective teaching. A proper academic climate can be maintained only when members of the academic community meet their fundamental responsibilities regularly, such as preparing for and meeting their assignments, conferring with and advising students, evaluating fairly and reporting promptly in all student achievements, and participating in group deliberations which contribute to the growth and development of students and the institution. All members of the academic community also have the responsibility to accept those reasonable duties assigned to them within their fields of competency, whether curricular, co-curricular, or extra-curricular. Additionally, the concept of institutional loyalty still has a proper place within the academic community to accept, honestly and with good faith, to preserve and defend the institution and its goals, without restricting the rights to advocate change.”

(3) the recently added grounds for firing on page 27: “Violation of the policies of the Board of Regents, including but not limited to Board Policy 8.2.1 (non-discrimination), Board Policy 8.2.16 (sexual harassment) and Board Policy 8.2.23 (amorous relationships).”
