Message From The Director
This past month, we welcomed over 1000 students for planetarium shows, and we celebrated local student achievement through a variety of programs. We have six amazing summer camps planned, and the Fulford Center is definitely the place to be this summer! Our camps will provide plenty of hands-on activities, open new horizons and create great memories.

We hope to see you this summer!
Feel free to contact us for more information.

JUNE 20-23

Students from Emanuel, Toombs, and Bulloch counties gathered recently for the annual EGSC Scholastic Chess Invitational. After a hard-fought five rounds, three players emerged as the top players. With a perfect 5-0 record, Jackson Williamson, from Vidalia Heritage Academy, finished first place. Second place was captured by Isaac Bittner from Statesboro. The third place trophy went to Kasey Bruner, also from Statesboro. Five participants were recognized as top divisional winners. They included Trisha Cruz from East Georgia State College, Trevor Current and Emeralda Hernandez from Swainsboro, and Gaige Bramley and Tapley Kight both from Vidalia Heritage Academy.

FULFORD YOUTH LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

A Great Success!

Forty gifted and dynamic juniors and seniors from Emanuel County Institute, Swainsboro High School, David Emanuel Academy gathered recently for the 3rd Annual Fulford Youth Leadership Academy. Students participated in Real Colors™ training and cooperatively took part in a variety of activities that enabled them to better understand human behavior, uncover motivators specific to temperament, and improve communication skills. They also participated in a powerful activity demonstrating and encouraging effective leadership skills. University of Georgia Extension staff members, Marnie Dekle and Angie Daughtry, led the training.
