Secret Pals
Secretary Morris read an update about Secret Pals sent via email from Missie Crawford. The message read:
“No one chose to change pals or opt out. We have had two employees leave EGSC and their pals were reassigned. Each year there are pals that are “less” active than others. I encourage anyone who has had a bad experience to let me know and then I send reminder emails about how often we’d like you to communicate with your pal. Sometimes it works and other times it doesn’t. Usually, those people who are “less” active will not reapply the next year. We typically do our reveal in December and that is still my plan now.”
Treasurer Wise brought up that the Secret Pals application form is very overwhelming to fill out and asks for some personal information applicants may or may not want to share. Members will discuss changing the form before the next Secret Pals session begins.
