Immediate Response Procedures for Victims

- Get to a place of safety
- Try to preserve evidence (Sexual assault victims: do not bathe, shower, brush teeth, douche, or use toilet; place clothing in paper bag. Violence victims: take pictures of bruises or other injuries. Stalking victims: save evidence of communications such as texts, emails, voicemails, videos, writings, etc.)
- Obtain necessary medical treatment
- Report the incident so that evidence may be collected in a timely manner; * college official or EGSC Police Department can assist with report
- Role of EGSC Police Department: assist with information for filing a restraining order in local court, and enforce the restraining order issued by local court
- Consider talking to a counselor

Reporting options: reports can be filed with the college in person or anonymously, and/or with law enforcement officials

- Anonymous reporting through the EGSC Hotline
- Decline to file a complaint (EGSC may continue investigation to the extent that it can as required by Title IX policies)

Confidentiality

Different officials on campus are, however, able to offer varying levels of privacy to victims and respondents.

- EGSC Police Department: not a confidential report; will be referred to GBI; may be made public if criminal prosecution. Clery Act Annual Security Report and "Timely Warning" crime alert will not contain victim name or identifying information.
- Title IX Coordinator: due to legal mandates requiring investigation of all signed complaints, if a report is escalated to a complaint the Coordinator may not be able to offer full confidentiality if doing so prohibits the college's ability to maintain a safe and nondiscriminatory campus environment.
- EGSC Counselor: report may be kept confidential and victim identifying information shall not be made public unless disclosure is mandated by law (victim is minor, victim or third party is in imminent danger).
- EGSC Employee: due to legal mandates employees have a duty to report any complaints received to Title IX Coordinator.

Amnesty:

Students are encouraged to come forward and to report sexual misconduct notwithstanding their choice to consume alcohol or drugs. Information reported by a student in good faith during an investigation concerning use of drugs or alcohol will not be used against the particular student in a disciplinary proceeding or voluntarily reported to law enforcement; however, students may be provided with resources on drug and alcohol counseling and/or education as appropriate.

Support Services Available:

Counseling: Immediate crisis counseling will be available through the EGSC Counseling and Disability Services office. Students on the EGSC Augusta campus may seek immediate crisis counseling through the Augusta University Counseling Office. Employees will then be referred to an off-campus provider. Contacts with the EGSC Counseling Center and Augusta University Counseling Office are confidential. Exceptions which require disclosure without consent include instances where the Counseling Center believes the client poses a clear and present danger to himself/herself or others and instances where the Counseling Center has reasonable cause to believe that a child (under the age of 18 years old) has been subjected to maltreatment, which may involve abuse, sexual abuse, neglect, sexual exploitation or abandonment.

Legal Assistance: Georgia Legal Services (888) 220-8399 can provide legal assistance.

EGSC Interim Measures: Regardless of whether you chose to pursue an investigation of the incident with EGSC or local law enforcement, interim measures may be implemented: change in academic schedules, on-campus living, employment arrangements, schedules and supervision; issuance of a no-contact directive, campus property restrictions, interim suspension and other measures designed to promote the safety and well-being of the parties and campus community. Interim measures may be implemented if such changes are reasonably available and implementation minimizes the burden on victim and respondent. As for all others, the circumstances giving rise to the interim measures will remain confidential to the extent that maintaining confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the interim measures.

Immigration and Visa Status Information for Immigrant Victims

Title IX and Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provide that an immigrant student or scholar victim are entitled to the same rights and will receive the same on campus resources as non-immigrant victims. Immigrant student victims of sexual or interpersonal violence may need professional legal advice concerning the effect of common interim measures (withdrawing from courses) on visa status. An immigrant student, scholar, or employee victim should inform the EGSC Designated School Official/Director of Admissions at (478) 289-2169 or Human Resources at (478) 289-2035, as appropriate, of the event and/ or interim measures and seek the advice of an immigration attorney. Specific visa and immigration statuses exist for victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. Students in F-1 and J-1 status desiring a reduced course load for medical reasons, or withdrawal, or other changes that result in changing visa status, should consult an immigration attorney. Employees in H-1B, O-1, E-3 or TN status desiring a leave of absence or other work absence, should consult an immigration attorney. For employees with pending US permanent resident status (green card not approved) desiring to leave employment, should consult an immigration attorney.

EGSC Disciplinary Proceedings and Sanctions

The EGSC Sexual Misconduct Policy sets forth the policy and procedure:

<http://www.ega.edu/policy/08-sexual-discrimination-harassment-and-misconduct-policy.pdf?12420>

Students charged with violation of the Sexual Misconduct Policy will be adjudicated under the Standards for Handling Sexual Misconduct of a Student under the Student Code of Conduct and the USG 4.6.5 Standards for Institutional Student Conduct Investigation and Disciplinary Proceedings. Additional Student Conduct Code violations related to the sexual misconduct charge may be heard in the Student Disciplinary Process. Possible sanctions for such additional Student Code of Conduct violations are located in the EGSC Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Process.

Employees charged with violation of the Sexual Misconduct Policy will be adjudicated under the Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment (NDAH) Policy. Additional Employee Conduct violations related to the sexual misconduct charge may be heard in the Employee Disciplinary Process. Employees may consult the Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy or the employee handbook (EGSC Employee Handbook).

No Retaliation Policy

East Georgia State College absolutely prohibits any retaliation, at any time, against anyone who has made a report or complaint, provided information, assisted, participated or refused to participate in any manner in the Sexual Misconduct Process, shall not be subjected to retaliation. Anyone who believes that of they have subjected to retaliation should immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator. Any person found to have engaged in retaliation in violation of this Policy shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Role of the Title IX Coordinator

The Title IX Coordinator will provide a copy of this document to the complainant and respondent. EGSC Police Department will refer reports to the Title IX Coordinator and the Title IX Coordinator will assign an investigator. The EGSC Title IX Coordinator will report incidents of sexual misconduct that could result in the suspension or expulsion of the alleged offender to the USG Title IX Director. The USG Title IX Director has oversight to assign an investigator, retain or transfer the case to the institution. An investigation will be conducted with full consideration of the complainant's and respondent's confidentiality concerns and balancing such concerns with the college's obligation to maintain a safe and secure campus and meet its compliance obligations under Title IX. East Georgia State College's Title IX Coordinator responsible for overseeing administrative investigations in compliance with Title IX requirements is Robert Jones, 478-289-2015; titleix@ega.edu

Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to the address below

U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights: (800) 421-3481 or ocr@ed.gov. If you wish to fill out a complaint form online with the agency, you may do so at: <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html>
