The President shall also conduct the business of the Senate between meetings as appropriate, with 2/3 support of the Senate, and not in violation of these Bylaws; review on a periodic basis the standing, subcommittees and ad hoc committees of the Senate, and recommend continuance, modification, or disbanding of these committees to the Senate; and conduct and present to the President of the College an annual evaluation of the Senate’s performance and the effectiveness of it for shared governance. The Senate President shall be a tenured Faculty member.

1.3 The Parliamentarian will advise the President on matters of parliamentary procedure in the proceedings of the Senate and function as Vice-President. The Parliamentarian shall be a tenured Faculty member.

1.4 The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping minutes of the proceedings, notifying the members of the Senate of impending meetings, and performing other duties as the Senate, or its presiding officer, may direct. The secretary will be responsible for posting minutes of meetings no more than 2 weeks after any meetings.

1.5 The term of office for all officers shall be one calendar year.

2. Faculty Senate Committees

2.1 The Faculty Senate, in addition to any action taken at faculty Senate meetings, shall carry on its business through a structure of Standing Committees. The committees shall make recommendations to the faculty Senate. Upon adoption by the Faculty Senate, the action of the faculty Senate is advisory to the College President.

2.1.1 Academic Policies and Curriculum Committee

Purposes and Functions: The purposes of the Academic Policies and curriculum Committee are to establish the academic goals and maintain high academic standards of the College and to assure that the curriculum meets emerging needs of the college community, meets accreditation standards, and complies with USG policies and procedures. Its functions are to recommend policies and procedures as necessary and proper to accomplish its purposes; study and enumerate the academic goals of the college, make recommendations to the faculty on matters of academic policy; and recommend approval of courses and programs of study pursuant to its policies and procedures.
Membership:
   Chair: Vice President for Academic Affairs
   Each Division Chair
   One faculty member from each academic division, nominated by each division and elected by the faculty of that division
   President and Vice President of student Government Association

2.1.2 Library Committee

Purposes and Functions: The purpose of the Library Committee is to assure that the College’s library provides physical and on-line resources and library services necessary to maintain an excellent learning environment. Its functions are to recommend policies and procedures as necessary and proper to accomplish its purpose, make recommendations concerning the allocation of budget resources, make periodic reports on the status of the library holdings, monitor the composition and status of the learning resources; and guide the general direction for the development of all library resources.

Membership:
   Chair: Director of Library
   One faculty member from each academic division, nominated by each division and elected by the faculty of that division
   Two students appointed by the Student Government Association

2.1.3 Study Abroad Committee

Purpose and Functions: The purpose of the Study Abroad Committee is to promote artistic, intellectual, personal, and cultural growth of students and faculty at the College through the study abroad experience. This may be accomplished by establishing new study abroad programs and supporting existing programs within the university System of Georgia. Its functions are to recommend policies and procedures as necessary and proper to accomplish its purpose, review approval requests for new study abroad programs of the College, evaluate existing programs, and review program locations as necessary, and to make recommendations to the vice president for academic affairs.

Membership:
   Chair: elected by the Committee from its members
   One faculty member from each academic division nominated by each Division and

   One member from Student Affairs
   One member from Business Affairs
   One member from External Affairs

2.1.4 Promotion and Tenure review Committee

Purpose and Functions: The purpose of the Promotion and Tenure Committee is to receive and review formal applications for tenure and promotion. Its functions are to recommend policies and procedures as necessary and proper to accomplish its purpose; review the formal portfolios; add its recommendation to that of the faculty member’s Division Chair of direct supervisor; and forward the portfolios and the recommendations to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The committee will notify the faculty member and the appropriate Division Chair or direct supervisor as to its action on the application. Members will serve a three-year term and Division Chairs will not be eligible for appointment to this committee. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will select a temporary replacement for any member of the Review Committee who is applying for promotion or tenure.

Membership:

Chair: selected by the Vice President of Academic Affairs from its members;
One tenured faculty member from each academic division selected by the vice president for academic affairs

2.2 The Faculty Senate may create additional sub-, special, or ad-hoc committees as necessary and proper to carry out its purpose.

2.3 During Senate meetings, the Senate President shall direct committees to research items of concern. At subsequent Senate meetings, the Committee Chairs shall present written findings and recommendations for Faculty Senate discussion. At the following regular meeting, any recommendations shall be subjected to a vote. Items requiring administrative action shall then be presented to the College Administration by the Faculty Senate President. Committees shall not be authorized to negotiate directly with administration, and the administration is advised that any drafts originating at the committee level may not carry a Faculty Senate mandate.
IV. PROCEDURES

1. Meetings

1.1 The Faculty Senate shall meet at least two (2) times per semester during the regular academic year.

1.1.1 The time and place of each meeting shall be determined by the Senate President and announced at least two weeks prior to the first regular Senate meeting of each semester. Meetings shall alternate between the two major campuses.

1.2 As ex officio Chair of the Faculty Senate, the College President may preside at its meetings.

1.3 Written notices of the meetings shall be published and distributed by the Secretary to each member of the Senate at least five (5) days prior to each meeting. All notices shall include the agenda of the proposed meeting. A member who cannot attend may give his or her proxy to another member of the Senate.

1.4 A 2/3 majority of the total membership of the Senate shall constitute a quorum to do business. If a quorum does not exist, no business shall be transacted except for a motion to recess to a specified time or to adjourn to another specified date.

1.5 The vote of the majority of those present and voting at a meeting is required for all official actions of the Senate.

1.5.1 Senators may request that a vote on a seconded motion be suspended until the next meeting in order to seek feedback from his/her constituency.

1.6 Proceedings of the Faculty Senate will be available for review in accordance with the Georgia Open Records Act. The minutes of all meetings will be recorded. After approval by the Senate, the minutes will be distributed to all Faculty members. Copies of all past minutes will be kept in a file in the College Library available to the College community for review, and be made available online.

1.7 Special meetings of the Faculty Senate may be called under these conditions: (a) upon the call of the President of the College; (b) upon the call of the Senate; (c) upon the call of at least 25% of the full-time Faculty; and (d) upon the call of the Senate President.

1.8 All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the Georgia Open Meetings Act. Non-members who wish to address the Senate may request permission to do so from the presiding officer during the meeting. Also, any Senate member may move that a non-member be allowed to speak. Non-members shall not interfere with normal deliberations of the Senate.
2. Agenda

2.1 Individual Senators, Faculty members, part-time instructors, College employees, members of the Staff Council, the President of the Student Government Association, and the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the President of the College may request the Chair to place items on the agenda if these are presented in writing at least seven (7) working days prior to the meeting.

2.2 The Senate will conduct the first review of appropriate policy proposals directed to the Senate President by any student, Faculty or staff member, department, or school. The Senate will also review appropriate policy proposals from such other originators as the College President, College officers, professionals with specific expertise in policy areas, or any operational groups of the College. In addition, the Senate will review proposals originating from groups outside of the College community. The Senate will make recommendations regarding these proposals to the College administration. The Senate will inform the originator in writing of the Senate's recommendation.

2.3 Meeting agendas should conform to the current edition of Roberts’ Rules of Order.

3. Motions and Voting

3.1 All elected Senators at a meeting shall have voting privileges.

3.2 Votes by proxy must be presented to the Senate Chair prior to voting.

3.3 Motions may be passed by a simple majority of those present and voting, except for motions to accept a proposal on first reading.

3.31 All motions (with the exception of procedural motions, motions to approve proposals previously distributed to Senators, or amendments to motions on the floor) must be presented to Senate members prior to voting on the motion. All floor motions not circulated in writing to Senate members must be submitted in writing by the end of the meeting to the Chair, with the names of the persons who so moved and who seconded.

3.32 A motion can be made to vote on a proposal on the first reading. In this case, passage requires unanimous approval of the Senate. Otherwise, the proposal will not be voted on until the following meeting of the Senate.

3.33 A motion for roll-call vote must be approved by 2/3 of the present, voting senators.

3.34 Unless objections are raised immediately following a Senate vote, the terms “unanimous” or “without dissent” may be used in the minutes when all votes are affirmative and in spite of abstentions.

3.4 "Robert's Rules of Order" (current edition) shall govern the Faculty Senate in all instances in which they are applicable, except when they are inconsistent with these Bylaws or with the policies and procedures of the College, the Board of Regents, or the State of Georgia. Special rules of order may be adopted by the Senate.

4. Reporting

4.1 Recommendations made by the Faculty Senate regarding matters within its responsibilities shall be delivered directly to the College President or his or her designee for his or her consideration. The College President and the Faculty Senate President shall develop a mutually agreeable timetable for a response based upon reasonableness and good faith.

4.2 On matters submitted to the Faculty Senate by the College President, the College President and the Faculty Senate President shall develop a mutually agreeable timetable for a response, based upon reasonableness and good faith.

4.3 Recommendations made by the Faculty Senate regarding matters within its responsibilities shall be published in the Senate file at the College library, and be available to the College community.

4.4 The right to submit a minority report to the College President is guaranteed to the dissenting party or faction in every instance.
V. Adoption, Review, and Amendments

1. Adoption and Amendments

1.1 The Senate Bylaws shall become effective when approved by a majority vote of the full-time teaching Faculty.

1.2 The Senate shall have the power to amend its Bylaws providing that such amendments be approved by both A) a simple majority of the total voting Senate membership after being discussed at two consecutive regularly scheduled meetings; and B) a simple majority of the Faculty.

1.21 Notice of any proposed amendment must be submitted in writing or electronically transmitted at least two weeks in advance of the first meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be introduced.

1.22 Polling of the Faculty may be done via electronic mail provided the proposed changes are circulated at least two weeks before a vote is called.

1.3 Any Faculty member or group of Faculty members of East Georgia State College may propose amendments to this document to the Faculty Senate. The Senate shall, upon approval of a majority of the membership of the Senate, make a recommendation to the entire Faculty. Upon approval by the Faculty, such amendment or amendments shall be added to the Bylaws which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of these Bylaws.

1.4 Any action of the Senate may be reviewed at a general meeting of the Faculty upon a written request signed by 25 percent of the full-time Faculty and submitted to the Senate President.
